Food, Work, and Growth of Animals.

When we consider that the food of animals consists principally of plant, we are not surprised to know that in composition, animal bodies closely resemble plants. Some animals are carnivorous, that is, they live on the flesh of other animals, but the animals so used to food derive their food from plants.

While animals and plants are much alike in composition, they differ very much in the manner of taking in food and growing. Plants, as a rule, take up the necessary raw material from the earth and air and build them into the compounds which make protein, carbohydrates, fats, etc. Animals have not this power of using raw material. The raw materials of the soil and air must first be made into plants before they are fit food for animals.

All living animals are constantly growing. Young animals grow very rapidly, and increase in size until they reach a point where they apparently cease to grow; but in reality they continue to grow though their size remains about constant. The process of repairing and rebuilding goes on continually. In plants these changes usually means new growth, and most plants continue to increase in size as long as they live.

A large amount of food is needed for the repairs which are going on in the body of animals. Food is needed not only for growth and repairs, but for the purpose of keeping up the temperature of the body as well. How much could be saved in the way of food by having warm stalls for our stock!

To do work animals need food, water and air. Take away one of these and the animal is without power and will soon die.

The art in feeding animals is knowing how to supply them with the proper amounts and kinds of food. Different kinds of animals require different kinds of food. Then, too, the same kind of animals under different conditions requires different amounts of food. The most important thing in feeding stock is the fact that scrubby animals eat just as much as fine, well-bred stock.

Suppose we have two cows; one a scrub giving three quarts of milk a day, the other giving, on an average, two and one-half gallons a day. The two cows will consume about the same amount of food.

The first cow will produce in six months about 137 gallons of milk, which at 20 cents a gallon would be worth just $27.40. The second cow in six months would produce about 455 gallons, which at 20 cents would be $91.00. This makes a difference of $63.60. The poorer the class of stock the more expensive it is to keep.

CHAS. W. DAVIS,
N. G. A. C.

It seems probable that before long the dogs as well as the daughters of rich and fashionable folks will be sent to Paris to finish their education. A school for dogs has been established there. Many society women already employ a maid or a man as a dog attendant, whose duty it is to train and accompany their pampered pets. But it is now possible to send them to school where they can be taught to bark properly, to bow in greeting and farewell, to pick up a fan dropped by the mistress and present it to her gracefully, and to walk with proud and prancing steps.—Ex.

A Minister Compelled a Pick-pocket to Disclose Himself.

The late Rev. Thomas C. Murphy once related the following anecdote as a forceful illustration of the saying, "Suspicion always haunts the guilty mind:"

During the singing of a hymn at a Pitman Grove service the officiating clergyman was told aside that one of his auditors had been robbed of his watch and that it was believed the thief was still sitting among the worshippers. "I'll soon find out," said the minister. "Bring me a good sized stone."

This request was complied with, and when the singing was finished, the clergyman stood up, holding the stone ostentatiously in his right hand, while he said:

"My dear brethren, I have just been informed that a gentleman worshipping with us has been robbed of his watch. The thief is sitting right down there, and I am now going to hit him with this piece of rock."

He vigorously drew back his arm as if to hurl the stone, and a man in the midst of the audience immediately ducked his head.

"There's the thief!" said the minister, exultantly pointing out the man. "Arrest him and search him."

This was done, and the stolen watch was found in the suspicious man's coat pocket.

Helping the Poor.

The great need of the world today is not some one to bear its burden for it, but some one who will teach it how to bear its own burden. There is much done for the poor and afflicted in the name of charity that falls far short of the highest helpfulness. On every hand organizations are springing up to provide food for the hungry and clothing for the naked, and some Christians are foolish enough to say that they are of more value to the community than the church. To improve a man's circumstances without improving the man is to do him more of evil than of good. It is better to open the eyes of the blind and thus enable him to provide for himself than to give him alms. The cure of pauperism will not be found in the generosity of the rich, but in the regeneration of the poor.—W. W. Weeks, D. D.

The county republican convention of White county last week was attended by seventy-negrees, and five white men, says the Clarksville Advertiser.

The late Senator Hanna's estate is valued at $3,000,000.

Suffering

Will Not Help Your Disease, But Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folks who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it—are wrong.
Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.
But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.
A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill.
This will soothe your quivering nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.
They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nervous irritations like Sleeplessness, Car-sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results.
I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative properties for the relief of all such cases. EDY. RAY A. WATKINS, D. D., Iowa City, Ia.
Sold by druggists at 25c. Money back if first box does not help. Never sold in bulk.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 3, 1904.

Entered at the Postoffice at Dahlonega, Ga., P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

The price of flour still increases. Wisconsin's beautiful $800,000 capitol was destroyed by fire the 27th.

Hon. H. H. Perry, who is now in the senate from the 33rd district, will make the race for representative in Hall county.

Representative Tate has introduced a bill in congress for the appropriation of $100,000 for a public building at Gainesville.

In the city court of Gainesville last week, Gower Eyerhardt, a 13-year-old lad, was fined $25 and costs for running a blind tiger. His customers were his playmates.

White county furnishes the timber for the 32nd Senatorial district next time. It is said that Col. J. W. H. Underwood will be a candidate. If elected the Colonel will make a good member.

In Gainesville, where they refused to eat cabbage last fall for fear of being poisoned by worms said to be in them, her citizens are offering three cents a pound for them now—we mean the cabbage.

Reports of the war in the east are so fearful that it is difficult to credit them. For example, the Russian railroad through Manchuria is only 6000 miles long, and yet the Japs have already blown up 11,000 miles of it, says an exchange.

We understand that one or more, who have always been republicans are expecting to run for office in this county, subject to the democratic primary. We suggest that every democrat say in his announcement that he is a democrat and will stick by the action of the primary. This will knock out all political imposters.

We learn that there are a number of republicans of this county, anticipating voting in the democratic primary if allowed. When they had their mass meeting in Dahlonega the other day, not a single democrat went about it. Suppose democrats had attended and some of them suggested the names of certain delegates to be elected, what would have been the result? Every republican in the house would have kicked against it. Now the democrats should do likewise. Democrats have no right to participate in republican meetings. Neither have republicans a right to vote in democratic primaries.

We see from last week's Signal that Bro. Shultz, who is a candidate for the legislature, suggests that all candidates pledge themselves not to use any liquor, in order to have a dry election. Dry elections would be much more preferable if they could be had, but if none but democrats are allowed to vote in the primary, not near as much liquor will be used as heretofore. If candidates see fit to pledge themselves they can do so, but the executive committee has no right or power to force them to do it. The law fixes a punishment for any one using liquor at primaries or elections, which can easily be put in force, yet, liquor has always been used in this county at elections and we have yet to hear of the first man being prosecuted or losing his popularity for doing it. There is a matter of as much importance as the liquor question, and it is this: We understand that Bro Shultz tells men that they can vote in the democratic primary for a man and if they fail to get their choice can leave off the other fellow's name at the general election and not violate any obligation. Where is any democracy about this? What's the use to have primaries if voters do not abide by them?

Notice to Democrats.

The democratic executive committee of Lumpkin county is hereby notified and requested to meet at the court house in Dahlonega on Saturday the 12th day of March at 11 o'clock. Each member is urged to be present as there is important business to attend to.

Now is the time to start the democratic ball and keep it moving.

More new candidates have announced this week. See them under proper heading.

The first two delegates in the United States—Warren, Ohio, were instructed to vote for Hon. William R. Hearst for president of the United States.

The Hearst boom is getting a pretty strong hold in Georgia. His friends are doing all in their power to have delegates sent to the National democratic convention to vote for him for president.

A number of big fires occurred in various cities on the 26th as follows: Rochester loses $5,000,000; Decatur, Ala, $100,000 loss; Soranton, Pa., 19 buildings destroyed; Brainerd, Miss., loses $100,000; and Des Morris, Iowa, $20,000.

The Houser Hotel at Dawsonville, is now in charge of Bro. J. B. Thomas of the Advertiser, who has made ample improvements in order to make it an up-to-date hotel. The table will be supplied with the best the country affords. In addition to this, the guests will have the best papers of the state to read, such as the Atlanta, Savannah, Augusta, New York dailies and THE DAHLONEGA NUGGET, weekly. Call at the "Thomas Hotel" when visiting Dawsonville, if you wish to enjoy life.

As stated last week, the supply of pension money for indigent widows were exhausted before all residing in Lumpkin and 42 other counties were supplied. A decision has been made by the attorney-general that any surplus of other pension money in the treasury can be used in making up this deficiency. So if there is any money left when all the rest of the claims are paid, these penniless widows will get their pensions. The commissioner believes there will be plenty of money to settle with the widows when all the rest are paid.

The announcement of Judge Richard B. Russell, who is now serving his second term as Judge of the Superior court of the Western circuit, as candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme court has caused somewhat of a surprise in Georgia political circles. This year, for the first time, the people will vote directly for Chief Justice, and for that reason unusual interest will attach to the contest. Judge Russell is no new man in public affairs, and has been remarkably successful in obtaining the office which he has sought in the past, and during his long public career has made many friends who will take pleasure in watching the result of the contest. Judge Simmons will likely offer for re-election, though so far he has not made any announcement to this effect.

Mr. Dock Nickson, city marshal of Blue Ridge Ga., killed a negro at that place the other day who was said to be resisting arrest.

Most of the fighting between the Japs and Russians, so far, has been on water, resulting in the Japanese gaining the victory nearly every time. But when it comes to land fights the latter may do better on account of being stronger.

During the recent Baltimore fire, 65 printing offices were destroyed in that city, including the Manufacturers' Record. Its editor and manager went to Philadelphia and made arrangements for this great 60 page journal to be printed, and was only behind one day. This shows what vim and energy will do.

Mr. J. D. Ash, a republican of Walnut, Ga., got mad at us and sent a letter directing his Nucor to be stopped. We did so, and sent him three No. 10 pills, said to be as good as Tatts, with instructions how to take them and to bathe his feet in good fresh water. This is the best remedy we know of for cases of this kind.

The democratic executive committee of Lumpkin county is composed of the following persons: J. A. Hollifield, Martin Bryan, J. D. Grindle, W. D. Seabolt, J. J. Seabolt, M. G. Head, J. F. Sargent, J. B. Graham, J. B. Swaney, John Wacaster, S. J. Harbin, M. C. Chester, J. B. Ricketts, J. B. Redmond, W. P. Gillispie and J. A. Marr, with John H. Moore Chairman.

In reference to the N. G. A. College, a minister is writing to us last week said: "On my rounds I find a lot of ignorance on the part of people as to the curriculum. For instance, a young man told me last Sunday that he didn't know before I told him that there was a good business course in the N. G. A. College, and that if he had known it he would have gone there instead of to a costlier business college." During the next summer the trustees should send out a live man to tell the people of the college's many advantages. It's true that catalogues and circulars are mailed every year to all parts of Georgia. But it is not like having a speaker. He will see hundreds of people who never get a catalogue, and answer all questions that may be asked concerning this great institution of learning. We will have more to say about this matter in the future.

Mrs. Samantha Christian died at Auraria this week.

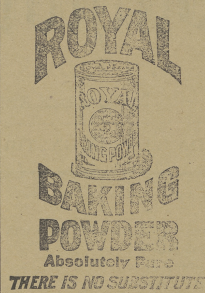

C. H. Jones Successful.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence Dr. C. H. Jones, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures. Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles that Dr. Jones is willing to return the price paid in everyone where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed. Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine. So great is the demand for this specific that Dr. Jones has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon Dr. Jones at once, or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

Three negro gals and three students have been fined two dollars and cost this week for disorderly conduct by Mayor Baker—$36 all told. Had they took warning by a little three or four line notice in last week's NUGGET three young men's hearts would not almost be aching today for fear they will be exposed. All names would be given in THE NUGGET today had we secured our information out side of the council chamber. We take no advantage of any one because we are a councilman and give no news of this kind unless it is gained in some other manner. This explains why all their names are not given. But we will tell you why these female coons and boys were fined. Sunday night about ten o'clock Marshal Walker and night watchman Carter caught the six taking a moonlight stroll down the Wimpy mill road while the night was cloudy. The three women were dressed in their best with clothing fully saturated with German cologne, rattling like a dozen balloons. To say that it was three lovely couples barely expresses it. Oh what a nice (?) affair! But as you know every sweet has its bitter. When the officers suddenly appeared the men halted. The women broke to run with Marshal Walker right after them. Over logs and through brush till they ran off of high bank, bursting their corsets and losing their bran bustles. It was here they surrendered for a woman can no more guide herself without a bustle than a tailless dog can walk a foot log. Then all made satisfactory arrangements to appear before Mayor Baker the next day and plead guilty.

Now is the time your stock of all kinds and poultry needs condition powders. We have the best made. Guaranteed by us, give satisfaction and leave you to be the judge—fair, isn't it? 8 day, nice clock $1.95 and $2.00. Mirrors 5c to 50c, bargains—all of them. 75c for top gloves and 50c. Splendid large hemmed men's handkerchiefs, worth 10c, our price 5c. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

The democratic primary for state house officers has been fixed for April 20th.

Local News.

Several early gardeners were engaged last Saturday planting on-fall potatoes, soybean peas and lettuce.

Mr. J. P. Reed, who used to reside in Dahlonega and edit the Signal, died in Acworth, Ga., last week.

The little six-month-old child of Mr. Charlie Odom, died in this county last week.

Mr. J. H. McKee came up from Dawson county last week and spent a few days with his family.

We noticed another load of last year's mountain cabbage in Dahlonega Saturday, which sold like hot cakes.

The members of Yahoola Church have called Rev. Jonathan Gilbreath of Union county, to preach for them a year.

Five different variety of envelopes just received at THE NUGGET office last week. If you need any printed call around.

Mr. James Ravan brought in a porker the other day weighing 359 pounds, which realized him $25.18 in clean cash. This shows the benefits being derived by farmers who do not live in the stock law.

Dr. Avis, president of the N. G. A. College, didn't go to his home in the north last week, but attended the National Educational Convention, held in Atlanta. The Doctor keeps his eyes open and never misses attending gatherings of this kind, by doing so, he keeps thoroughly posted in educational matters.

We have decided to change the publication day of THE NUGGET to Saturday. So, hereafter it will be issued on Saturday morning instead of Thursday, and those wishing, can get their papers in Dahlonega bright and early Saturday morning—by the first break of day, and THE NUGGET for other places will be started off on the early mails.

Candidates, in this county, have already commenced active work. One, who has only been in the race about two weeks, took his fiddle last Saturday and played for a dance in Dahlonega from daylight till 12 o'clock that night, almost without ceasing. Assistant Postmaster Jim Tate was on hand. He had been cramped up in the office all the week and he danced till his legs and body were as limber as if they had been greased with machine oil, saying nothing of the enjoyment he derived from attending.

From Bessemer, Ala., we are always glad to hear, on account of the number of Dahlonega people having located there within the past twelve months in search of more work and better prices than can be had in Georgia. Our latest news from that place came in this week. It is of a sensational nature. One that is just coming to light—a cousin sensation. Such things will occur any and every where. Well, the pea fowl is a very proud bird and often perches upon the topmost limb to preserve its fine feathers, nevertheless, it sometimes gets them soiled.

Uncle Bev. Sullins, residing in the eastern portion of the county, who draws a state pension, didn't seem to know what to do with his money last week after it came. He sent in Scott Stringer, who he was owing, with an order to the ordinary instructing him to pay it to Scott. Before Mr. Stringer got the money, however, here came a phone message to Judge Huff, telling him not to pay it to any one, but to mail it to him. Later Mr. Stringer talked to Mr. Sullins and he phoned him to collect it. But in less than ten minutes he reconsidered this order. The trouble with a number of pensioners they trade with different merchants on the strength of this money and don't know which one to pay it to when it comes, which causes a kind of a snafu and grab game among the creditors.

We are requested to state that Rev. C. M. Ferguson will preach at Yahoola church on the 2nd Sunday in March.

Sheriff Davis went over to Ducktown last week and brought back Andrew Edmonson, who is wanted in this county for disturbing a Sunday School. They also have a warrant against him in White county for misdemeanor.

Jim Lingerfelt of this county, after being in jail several days, charged with blocking, is released. His case is delarbed by the statute of limitation, besides no witnesses appeared against him—some of them is in the Atlanta jail and the other is Mr. Bryan of Fannin county who was knifed so badly by Jim Smith recently.

Among the pensioners who were in Dahlonega last Thursday, was Mr. Massey, who lives just in the edge of this county, near the White county line. Mr. Massey was the oldest veteran here. He is about 90, but is very stout, considering his age, having walked to town that day. He says that he is alone here now, as all his comrades and schoolmates have long since passed to the world beyond.

Mr. Lowe of Huron, Ohio, who owns stock in the Standard Gold mine, came down and spent a few days in Dahlonega last week. Mr. Lowe says he, together with a number of his friends, are thinking of moving south. The winters up there are too severe for them. This one has been the severest experienced in many years. Up to the time he left there they had already had 23 snows. The gates of the south are open to you gentlemen. Come right along.

Last Thursday night a certain young man, who had been drinking a good deal, undertook to escort his sweetheart home from prayer meeting but fell by the wayside and got left alone. Later another young man came along and got Samartian like and carried his friend on to where he had started so he could be in the presence of his lover. He was in a dreadful fix and it was right interesting to see the girl with assistants, pouring coffee and other restoratives down the fellow like drenching a horse. But nothing seemed to revive him, not even the touch of the girls loving hand, and he was carried away by two assistants—without weeping, but vomiting.

The severe winters in the north and west are going to drive many people south where the climate is mild before another year. Several letters have been received at THE NUGGET office recently from parties who wish to change, enquiring about this section. While the people up there have been housed up and suffering with cold, the entire winter down here men worked out in their shirt sleeves nearly every day. This is a most delightful climate, both winter and summer. The winters are not extremely cold and the summers are so pleasant that a person, during the hottest days, can sit in the shade and be comfortable. The lands are cheap, and most of them would be very productive if they had the same attention here as farming is given in the north and west, and a better soil for all kinds of fruit cannot be found anywhere. More fertilizing and industry would bring any of them to a high state of cultivation. There is not a single garden in this whole section but what produces well. What causes it? Labor and proper attention. Other lands could be made to do the same.

The spring frogs have commenced their music.

The Masonic fraternity had an oyster supper at Hall's Villa Tuesday night.

At J. F. Moore & Co. you will find Ferry's cabbage and bean seeds in bulk.

Mr. W. P. Price, Jr., went down to Atlanta this week to lay in a supply of new goods.

J. F. Moore & Co. have purchased the Henry Roberts property near the cemetery.

Harry Thomas, formerly of Dahlonega, is now guiding a street car in Anniston, Ala.

Mr. H. D. Gurley bought the Wm. Spencer property at sheriff's sales last Tuesday for $68.

If you want a paper that is always on time, subscribe for THE NUGGET in order to get the very latest news.

Cadet E. B. Kirkpatrick has been quite sick at the Dahlonega Hotel for more than two weeks. He is said to have an attack of indigestion.

Mr. J. A. Anderson contemplates putting up a grist mill and crusher in Dahlonega. He will also run a wood saw and keep lumber for sale.

Floyd Adams was arrested Tuesday by Marshal Walker. Nothing serious, however—only got on the war path and we learn wanted to fight his father.

I have 500 thrifty Elberta peach trees capable of bearing 1906. I will sell in quantities to suit purchaser at 6 cents each. Call on J. J. Seay, Tate, Ga.

The Phi Mu society has elected Messrs. J. F. Broach and J. D. Gortatowsky as champion debaters. The Decoras have elected L. G. Fortson and E. P. Patterson.

The stewards of the Methodist Church were around last week collecting what was due Mr. Turner, the pastor. Everybody here likes Mr. Turner and it is but little trouble to get up his money.

When you visit Gainesville stop at Mrs. C. M. McAfee's boarding house, located on Washington street, on car line, opposite Singer Machine Co. Good rooms and good fare, and prices as reasonable as can be had in Gainesville.

Last week we received a letter from a gentleman at Auraria, only six miles distant, by the upper Gainesville route. It was sent the wrong way and had to be carried a distance of forty-four miles in order to reach us, three days behind. All persons who attend to postoffices should be able to read and write.

Last Thursday was a happy day with many of the old confederate soldiers and widows of this county who draw pensions. Judge Huff distributed out among them nearly four thousand dollars of the states money. They are all tottering with old age now, dropping off one by one, and in a few more years none of them will be left.

A collection was taken up at the Methodist church last Sunday for the purpose of building a parsonage for the presiding elder in Gainesville. In other words, the church here was assessed $2.55 for this purpose. This is something new and didn't meet the approval of but very few people. If the presiding elder locates in Gainesville let her people build it. They get his trade and all the benefits of his citizenship.

There are certain persons here who are liable to get into trouble by mixing rabbit and copper and selling it for gold. It is said that one party bought what he believed was gold, weighing twenty pennyweights but when put in acid there was less than three pennyweights of gold. Fortunately the man suspected something wrong with the metal and only paid a little for it until it was cleaned. Otherwise he would have lost. Such would be swindlers will sooner or later get into the chain gang.

Several of the college boys have been down with the mumps.

Many of the old college guns are being exchanged for new ones.

Mr. J. T. Kirkpatrick of Atlanta, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday.

Col. W. P. Price has returned from several days visit to Atlanta.

Our old friend, Mr. E. W. Strickland, has returned from Alabama.

We learn that a little child of Mr. Marion Brooksher, formerly of Dahlonega, died in Tennessee a few days ago.

We understand that Capt. Eugene Main, who has spent much of his time in Lumpkin county, died in Chicago recently.

At the Drug Store you will find all kinds of garden seeds raised by Curry-Arrington Co., down at Rome, Ga., adapted to this country.

The hog ordinance of Dahlonega, requiring all hogs kept within the corporate limits to be put in large pens, goes into effect the first day of April.

Mr. B. R. Meaders, who has been absent from Dahlonega for about two months down the country selling stock, returned last Monday.

The first day of March was a lovely day, and it being leap year, one of our physicians was presented with a beautiful bouquet by a certain married woman.

In reference to the establishment of a rural mail route in this county we are investigating and will likely be able to throw some light on the subject next week.

The other day little Paul Books sold his Shepherd dog and took the money and purchased two pigs. This is an example that should be followed by other boys.

Dr. H. C. Wheelchel returned from New York last Monday, where he has been taking a four weeks medical course. We regret to say that his eldest son Garnet, is very sick with pneumonia.

Our friends and patrons, Messrs. Courtney and Ferguson of White county, were in Dahlonega last Monday. Mr. Courtney is a stock law man and a republican, nevertheless, he is one of our best friends.

There are still many of the last acts of the legislature belonging to Justices and Notaries, that are in the ordinary's office here uncalled for. Why don't they come and get them. There are several new laws these officers should read and understand.

LAST NOTICE.—Parties must come and settle with me by the 10th. After that time their accounts will be found in the hands of an attorney. I am going to move to Dawsonville.

Respectfully,

M. N. STOW, M. D.

Mr. John Chapman, residing ten miles of Atlanta, paid us a visit yesterday. He says he gets a letter from Dahlonega the second day after it is started, but often THE NUGGET mailed on Thursday doesn't reach him until Monday. We will look into this.

Mr. W. F. Bryson, who is teaching at the Ashley school house, informs us that all the old books have been exchanged, the ground nicely cleaned off and shade trees planted out, and every thing is in fine shape in and about the school house.

Mining Notes.

After a suspension of 8 months for lack of power on account of the drought, work has been resumed at Crown Mountain.

Mr. Edwin, the expert who is testing the Consolidated Company's property with an eye to erecting a $10,000 synido process, has been here only a few days, although he is well pleased with the prospect. The gentleman will make a thorough examination of all the property belonging to this company, which will require a month or so.

Messrs. Smith, Allen and Gordon of Colorado, spent several days in visiting the mines in the lower part of the county last week with an eye of making an investment.

For some time the McAfee-Lind mill has been suspended on account of the structure being enlarged and more stamps added. Part of the stamps were put in motion last week and by now all are moving.

Down at the Singleton Superintendent Campbell has commenced taking out ore from the rich vein recently discovered by Sam Castleberry, which is more than eight feet across. From the binding and float ore Sam and his boy got eighty-four pennyweights and twenty grains of clean gold from eleven and a half tons. The two alone did this work in six days.

The Ingersoll & Crisson dredge boat is now doing profitable work on the Lamar lot. The operation of this boat causes persons owning property on the river to receive money for rent that would not realize from it a dollar other wise. Take the Satterfield fraction for instance. It is a very small one and only cost its owner one dollar and a half—its taxes. The other day Mr. Satterfield received $70 rent gold, for the work they did just in the edge of the bank.

The valuable Briar Patch gold mining property of this county, is creating much interest among capitalists, who are coming to examine it in great numbers. A large crowd from Illinois and Nebraska have just been down looking over the field, all of whom were well pleased with the Briar Patch. They were: Messrs. W. I. Rush, Wm. Hager, Mr. Sonntag, C. W. Coppock, W. P. Davis, Dr. Shidler, E. E. Opits, J. Kain, J. W. Prescott, J. S. Soilsburg, L. A. Bower, L. H. Hottinger, Dr. B. M. Barnett, A. Chandler, H. C. Hyland, C. E. Duncan, D. C. Konce, and L. S. Bearden. The development work on Jumbo continues to show very gratifying results. Last week the Mistletoe vein was cut at a depth of 20 feet and found to be as large and as rich, if not richer, than at the surface. It is stated by the manager that a "streak" in this vein pans to be worth a pennyweight to the pan. A tunnel is now started to cut this vein at a fifty foot level, and should the veins hold out at this depth and the continuity of the vein ascertained beyond doubt, this alone makes a good gold mine. This vein was found on a part of the property that was not considered as a valuable gold bearing part of the property when developments begun. The tunnel vein from the south to and under the old shaft discloses a body of ore the like of which has never before been seen in this section.

For fully sixty feet of this tunnel goes through a solid mass of granulated rose colored quartz which is so pleasing to the eye of a miner. There is between three and five hundred tons of this ore on the dump. The tunnel now reaches the old shaft and there is no evidence yet of any diminution or richness of the ore. More good ore can now be seen on the dump and in the tunnels of this property than has yet been shown in this section, and more valuable discoveries are being made every day. The management has determined to fully expose the ore and values of the mine so that the greenest tender foot cannot be deceived, and this should be done with all mines which are being exploited as gold mines.

LATER.—Just before going to press Mr. J. F. Moore informs us that Mr. Fry has phoned him that he has just struck a vein by far the richest of anything found at Jumbo yet and Mr. Moore has just left for the diggings.

I have 500 acres, mineral interest I will sell or lease to good parties 3 miles west of Barrettsville, Ga. Can wash gravel from surface on the hill sides or branches. For further information write or call on J. J. Seay, Tate, Ga.

Is the College Moving?

Certainly so! And not only is it moving, but it is moving other things also. For instance, when the Phi Mu society undertakes to have an entertainment she has it with no "ifs nor ands" about it. When she has public debates she wins the people. When she has an anniversary she respects the people, and when she has a champion debate she—well she doesn't get anything else but the decision!

What about the Decoras?

Well, I just hate to come right out and express my honest opinion. Yet, they say an honest confession is good for the soul. Anyway the Decoras are a good lot of boys, and if they live long enough they will make a good lot of men. They tell us that the future congress will be full of Decoras but we are not uneasy but that we can manage to get one Phi Mu in as a prize. It is hard to tell which one of the societies has the larger number of patriotic aspirants. Possibly the Decoras, for they are a little more numerous. Some one has suggested that the Decoras have the numbers but the Phi Mus have the quality. Of course the reader will not think that I am biased in the least, for when a person can't see but one side of a thing he is said to be perfectly "loyal headed."

The Decoras have elected one Senior and one Junior this year for champion debate. They say they are going to break the monotony of losing the last six decisions.

The Phi Mus say they are going to sustain a well-earned reputation. Something must be going to happen, for both say that they are going to succeed. If this is the case it will be the biggest double victory that was ever pulled off of a Dahlonaga platform.

So Amen—let her go—is what we hallow!

Dr. E. S. Avis went to his old home in Delaware this week. Possibly the Doctor thought that he needed to mix the oxygen of a colder atmosphere with that of our Blue Ridge breezes and it would make him more vigorous.

College will not close this year till about the middle of June. So some of the boys will not get to see papa and mamma quite so soon. However, we are going to do a lot of hard work between now and then. As an example of what we are doing the following is a typical specimen of one of our advanced Seniors, reciting on the theory of evolution:

Prof.—"Mr. G—, distinguish between the tad pole and the frog."

Mr. G—"Professor, there is only two special discernable differences. The first one is that the tad pole always lies down and the frog always sets down. And the second one is, the tad-pole is always biggest on top and the frog is always biggest at the bottom."

A Monster Sunfish.

Near Santa Catalina island, off the coast of California, was caught recently the largest sunfish ever taken or perhaps seen. It was literally impossible, even with all the available tackle used in lifting huge tunas and black sea bass, to weigh this fish entire or to lift it from the ground, so that its weight was guessed at a ton, while conservative estimates placed it at from 1,500 to 1,000 pounds. The captives discovered it while fishing from a launch. It was swimming with its huge, sharklike fin above the surface. The launch was steamed alongside, and a boatman thrust a heavy gaff into it. Immediately the fish began a series of elephantine struggles which more than once threatened the boat. After three hours the fishermen subdued it and with no little difficulty towed it into port.

The National Educational Association, after holding a very interesting session in Atlanta last week, convened to meet at Milwaukee next year.

Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters of thanks. I have suffered greatly with indigestion, constipation, also a severe liver trouble, with loss of appetite. Could not rest well at night; in fact, had no energy to work or even walk around. I felt like I was packing a heavy load, and was easily exhausted, until I took Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which helped me almost from the first dose. When I had taken one and one-half bottles I felt like a different man, and I knew that it was due entirely to your medicine. I used in all three bottles, and consider myself perfectly cured. ## For the Farmer.

The National Government gives the rivers and harbors some $30,000,000 a year.

It gives the cities great public buildings, post-offices, court houses, etc.

It gives manufacturers protection by the tariff.

It gives the veterans and their families $140,000,000 a year in pensions.

It has loaned its credit to build railways and given them grants of millions of acres of land.

It has, however, done but little for the farmer and for agriculture.

The farmer is the backbone of the country; it is he who feeds the entire population, and he is no longer satisfied with poor roads.

At last it seems as if the National Government was going to do something for the farmer. A bill has been introduced in Congress, called the Brownlow bill, which appropriates $24,000,000 for the National aid for the building of roads. The farmer wants this bill to pass, and he is determined that the National Government shall do something for him, as well as for the rest of its citizens.

"The laws against child labor are shamelessly and heartlessly violated," said Rabbi Leon Harris, of St. Louis, in a recent address on social problems. "The white-faced, puny children, in stifling factories, are feeding machines all the livelong day. For them nothing but work, work, work, with poverty and squalor at home. Child labor, do you call it? It is the blighting of the future of these children. What progeny will they bring forth? What manner of harvest are we preparing for ourself, O men and women of America!"

Uncle Sam is preparing to begin cutting the big Panama canal.

FARM FOR SALE.

Three miles north of Dahlonaga, on Cooper Gap road, I own an upland farm of one hundred and forty acres, with forty acres in cultivation, upon which grows over eleven hundred fruit trees, six hundred and fifty of them peaches and English walnuts, from trees to ten years old. Then 70 apple trees. Then two hundred black walnut trees. Over three hundred peach trees, and smaller fruit trees. Surface good on 75, not prospected. Also on 84, on the east line of that lot a gold vein crosses and has been opened, and shows a very fine prospect of gold. I own half interest in this mine. Also a fine show of placer gold mine in the ravines of lots 778 and 833. Also on those two lots fine indications of deposit of kaolin and iron veins on the property. If these veins were all opened, exposed and properly exploited, this property would be worth twelve hundred to two thousand dollars.

Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 25 percent better.

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound bottle of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Kissing as a Science.

Richard Grant White, the philologist, thus explained and defines what it is in its various phrases as an applied science.

Buss, to kiss; Rebus, to kiss again; Pluribus, kissing without regard to number; Sillybuss, to kiss the hand instead of the lips; Blunderbuss, to kiss the wrong person; Amibuss, to kiss everyone in the room; Erebus, to kiss in the dark.

Persons interested can thus take their choice.

How Wood is Consumed.

Fifty thousand acres of timber are consumed every year in the manufacture of crates and boxes.

The railroads of the country use annually 120,000,000 ties. Seven hundred and fifty thousand telegraph poles must be renewed yearly, not to mention the telephone poles used and the telegraph poles required in the construction of new lines, making the total annual consumption for poles and ties 1,660,000 acres.—Maxwell's Talism.

How They Voted in Lumpkin County in 1902.

We give the vote in the democratic primary in 1902 to prove that republicans who vote in democratic primaries unless they get their choice in the first, which is shown in the final election, will not stick to the nominees when a republican or independent comes out for office. This is why we contend that the democratic party of this county should have strictly a democratic primary. Look at the figures below. 840 votes were polled in the primary of 1902 and only 701 votes were cast in the final election and 149 of these were cast for the republican candidate.

In the last election Mr. Stancil, a republican, was a candidate for sheriff against Mr. Davis, the democratic nominee, and Mr. West, an independent, opposed Mr. Healan, the nominee for tax receiver. We give below the vote of each precinct—first figures being the number of votes polled first in the primary, to-wit:

Auraria, 92—Davis 54, Stancil 10, Healan 50, West 7.
Cane Creek, 16—Davis 22, Stancil 5, Healan 22, West 4.
Crumbly, 34—Davis 14, Stancil 6, Healan 18, West 3.

Frowtown, 21—Davis 9, Stancil 12, Healan 12, West 10.

Total, 840—Davis 597, Stancil 149, Healan 620, West 141.

Another Revival.

We are in the midst of a glorious revival. Eight persons souls were saved Saturday night. Twenty four have professed Christ as their Saviour since the meeting begun. The interest is still great. The revival began before Christmas and we have been trying to keep it going ever since, but owing to the bad weather, have had to suspend several times. Although we have met with many difficulties, God has been with us. The ordinance of baptism will take place in the near future and we hope and pray that several more of our town will be ready to join us by that time.

I am very thankful to Bro. Taylor, pastor of our church, for his valuable assistance.

(REV.) J. E. BLACKBURN.

Hon. Thomas E. Watson comes out in a letter, saying that Grover Cleveland did invite a negro to the white house reception, being Fred Douglass, the negro and the latter's white wife, and Mr. Watson further states that Mr. Cleveland, while governor of New York, signed the bill provided for mixed schools.

A recent election was held in Blue Ridge, Ga., for "wet or dry," and a contest last week resulted in the "wets" carrying the election by two majority.

Druggists Who Sell Dr. Miles' Nerveine Agree, If It Fails, To Refund Cost.

Of course we reimburse the druggist. You know him, and trust him. Dr. Miles' Nerveine is medicine for your nerves.

It cures diseases of the internal organs, by giving tone to the nerves which make these organs work. It is a novel theory—not of anatomy, but of treatment; first discovered by Dr. Miles, and since made use of by many wide-awake physicians, who appreciate its value in treating the sick. If you are sick, we offer you a way to be made well—Dr. Miles' Nerveine. This medicine is a scientific cure for nerve disorders, such as Neuritis, Headache, Loss of Memory, Sleeplessness, Spasms, Barking, St. Vitus' Dance, Epilepsy or Fits, Nervous Prostration, etc.

By toning up the nerves, Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerveine will also cure those diseases of the internal organs due to a disordered nervous system. Some of these are: Indigestion, Bilious Headache, Kidney Trouble, Chronic Constipation, Dropsy, Catarrh, Rheumatism, etc.

My brother had nervous prostration, and was not cured until he used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerveine. He has fully recovered. You remember I wrote you how it saved my life a few years ago, when I had nervous trouble. I wish its merits to everyone.—EDWARD MILES, Correctionville, Iowa.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 12, 1904.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Mr. V. Wheelchel died in Hall county last Wednesday.

Atlanta's First Methodist church, costing $125,000, will soon be completed.

Rev. John A. Bryan, the oldest man in Banks county, died last week. He had baptized 5,000 persons.

The Supreme court has decided that the Calvan vagrant law is all right. Now, let everybody go to work.

Mrs. A. F. Norton, who used to reside in Dahlonega, died at Cleveland, Ga., on Tuesday of last week, aged 75.

Most of the war news we are now receiving from the far east, is imaginary. One day a report will come that many vessels have been sunk, and the next day it will be contradicted.

While Carter Tate is in Washington trying to get a mining school established in Dahlonega we must help him. If he succeeds it will bring thousands of dollars to this section and help the whole country.

The republicans, at their so-called mass meeting held in Dahlonega recently, capped the climax by recommending the appointment of Mr. E. D. Lock to the National Republican Convention, who has been dead two or three months.

Judge Simmons, one of the ablest judges in Georgia, who held court one time in Lumpkin county many years ago, is a candidate for re-election to the supreme bench. No better man has ever occupied his position, and to swap him off for a new man would be a risky business.

Pension Commissioner Johnson announces that the last of the 137 counties have been paid pension money for 1904 and that he will now begin the payment of indigent widows in 43 counties from the meager balance left. Over $100,000 has been paid out to pensioners since January 20.

Elsewhere in this issue we give the total vote of each precinct polled two years ago in Lumpkin county and well as the result in the final election between the republicans and democratic nominees. This will surely convince every democrat that strictly democratic primaries are needed.

On account of a speech, recently made here in the interest of a candidate for congress, it has been currently reported that at some time Hon. F. C. Tate made some individual a present of a pair of gray horses for his influence. We are reliably informed that Mr. Tate never at any time made anybody a present of a pair of horses of any kind. It does not look well to have such talk as this unless it is true. If we are going to have a campaign let it be on the lines of facts. The horse story is not true and it won't keep anybody from voting for Tate, who counts his friends in this county by the hundreds.

It is claimed that parties other than democrats are running for office in Lumpkin county subject to the democratic primary. It is not right for a person to connect themselves with a democratic cloak for a month or so just to get the support of the democratic vote. Wouldn't it be well enough to find out a little something about this matter before the primary and let every fellow shinin on his own side? What candidates now running will say publicly that they are democrats and will stick to the homilids in the final election, whether defeated or elected in the democratic primary? We will publish their names next week with pleasure. Send them in.

Mr. Tate And the Rural Route.

Recently we published the fact that a rural free delivery route had been requested, covering a territory north of Dahlonega, and we asked why our congressman had not secured it. Since then we have investigated this matter and we find that Congressman Tate has done everything he could do. We learn that it is a rule of the post-office department to consider these requests in the order in which they are filed, and that owing to the fact that there are so few inspectors the department is just now engaged in passing on requests that were made in the early part of the year, 1903.

The regulations first require that a petition be sent in, signed by the heads of 100 families. This petition is sent to the congressman, and in the case we referred to, Congressman Tate, immediately upon receipt of the petition filed the same and recommended the establishment of the route. The matter has not yet been taken up by the authorities, owing to the fact that there are so many petitions ahead of this one, which, under the rule, must be considered before this one can. When this route is reached in its turn an inspector will be sent here and the route inspected and laid out. In other words, it appears that the rule of being served at mill, applies here—first come, first served. The congressman, of course, can't recommend a route until the petition is sent to him, and it therefore behooves the people, if they want these routes, to send in their petitions so that they may be considered in turn. The congressman can't be blamed for not getting routes unless the people first send in their petitions and then he can only use his influence to recommend and have them taken up according to the regulations.

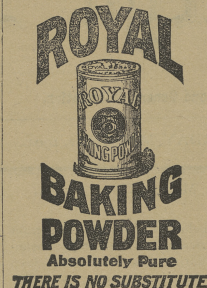

We learn that Congressman Tate, with others, is actively at work to have the number of inspectors increased in order that these matters may be disposed of more rapidly. It thus appears that Mr. Tate is as usual alert and wide awake to the interests of his constituents.

We are glad to be able to state the facts as we have done. When we said what we did we were simply trying to see whether the interests of our people were being guarded. We are fully satisfied that they are. There has never been a time since he has been in congress that Mr. Tate has not been quick to respond to any request made from Lumpkin county. He has served her people in season and out, and we do not believe that anyone could more faithfully represent them. He was at school here in Dahlonega and spent much of his boyhood days amongst us. He knows our people and they know him, and he has always taken special interest in serving the people of Lumpkin county, whether its individuals or as a whole.

As stated heretofore a committee to solicit subscriptions in this county to build a suitable monument in memory of Gen. John B. Gordon, at the state capitol, had been appointed, to wit: Col. W. P. Price, Prof. E. B. Vickery, Hott, G. D. Bruce and Prof. B. P. Gailard. Subscriptions in money or promises, may be handed in to any of the committee. The Gordon Monument Association is anxious that the subscriptions be paid in its early as possible.

The state democratic executive committee, at its last meeting, decided to allow all white persons wishing to affiliate with the democratic party to vote in the state primary. Now if the executive committee of Lumpkin county decides today to hold the county primary at the same time the state primary is held, the gap will be laid down to the republicans, and hear two hundred of them will vote in it like they did two years ago; with no intention of abiding by the primary if any republican or independent comes out later on. By all means, let us have a strictly, democratic primary in this county one time.

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

ABOUT RURAL ROUTES.

Letter From Hon. F. C. Tate and C. A. Conard, Assistant P. M. General, Making Explanations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 8-7-04
MR. W. B. TOWNSEND,
DAHLONEGA, GA.

DEAR FRIEND:
I enclose herewith a copy of letter written me by Mr. Conard, Acting Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, in regard to the inspection and laying out of R. F. D. routes. I have also gone over with him the situation at your office and have sent Judge Tate, your postmaster, petitions for R. F. D. routes out from your office. I think from this conference that I will be able by early summer to have such routes inspected out from Dahlonega as you, Judge Tate and others interested will send me petitions for. Of course, nothing can be done until these matters are reached in their order, but it is important that when an inspection is made that all the routes to be laid out be inspected at the same time, so that one route will not infringe upon the territory of another and so that they all can be laid out at one time in a way to give the best possible mail service to the people to be served. The double daily service from Gainesville that I have had established for your place, makes it "such, that efficient rural service can be secured." I also enclose you, under separate cover, instructions for laying out R. F. D. routes.

With best wishes, I am
Your friend,
F. C. TATE.
POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GEN.
DIVISION OF R. F. D.
WASHINGTON, March 4, 1904.
Hon. F. C. Tate,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

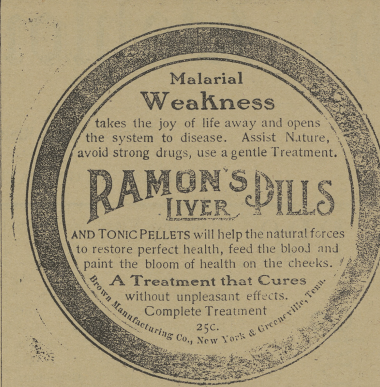

DEAR SIR:
Referring to your call at the Department urging the investigation of petitions for rural free delivery service in your district, you are advised that the work of examining petitions is now from nine to twelve months in arrears. The work is being pushed as rapidly as possible and it is hoped that the work of examining petitions in your district may be reached in the course of the coming spring. Thirty-seven routes have been established in your district since July 1, 1903, which is more than have been established in any other district in the State of Georgia during that time.

Referring to your inquiry concerning the establishment of rural service from post-offices supplied by star route services, you are advised that it is the policy of the Department to establish rural free delivery from such offices if the territory can not be supplied from railroad offices and then only unless the mail supply of the office is such that efficient rural service can be secured. It appears that there are a number of petitions for such service on file from offices in your district, but, as stated, it is only in exceptional cases that service can be established. Very respectfully,
(Signed) C. A. CONARD,
Acting Fourth Asst. P. M. Gen.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for county treasurer, subject to the Democratic primary, and will gratefully appreciate the kind consideration of every voter.

JAMES L. DAVIS.
We are authorized to announce the name of M. F. Wheelchel as a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the Democratic primary. "Uncle Dick" is well known to all the voters, who, if elected, promises to fill the duties of the office with satisfaction.

FOR SALE BY DR. C. H. JONES.

A resolution will be introduced today before the democratic executive committee to throw out all tickets cast in the coming primary for candidates who use liquor in it. If the committee can't keep republicans from running in the primary, it can't keep a democrat from using liquor.

C. H. Jones Successful.
After a great deal of effort and correspondence Dr. C. H. Jones, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles that Dr. Jones is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

So great is the demand for this specific that Dr. Jones has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon Dr. Jones at once, or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Down at the Barlow Mine first of the week they had a break in 40 feet long and 12 feet deep in the canal, causing some damage to the mill. Very soon they had it fixed and five stamps of the mill running and by this time are likely about ready to put all the stamps to moving again.

Last Saturday night Will McDougald, a boy who was working and sleeping at Tate, Littlefield & Co's stable, desiring a light in his sleeping department, climbed up in the hall, connected a wire and soon had a beautiful electric light burning in his room just above his head, hanging over a nail. Then he took his bed, soon dreaming of his qualifications as an electrician. Some time afterwards he awoke and found his bed a fire. The light had dropped from the nail on the bed and burnt a hole through two or three quilts, a mattress and was making its way into a straw bed. With water he soon extinguished the fire, removed the light and wire, and for some time next morning denied any knowledge of how it occurred. To say nothing of the danger to the town it was certainly a very risky business for a boy to be meddling with a live wire.

Mrs. J. L. Davis, after many months illness and much suffering, breathed her last at her home Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, aged about 65. The deceased was a good kind hearted christian lady, having professed religion when only sixteen years of age, and from this time on always said she was ready to die at any time. She leaves a husband, several sons and daughters and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Her remains were interred at the Jones Chapel cemetery yesterday in the presence of a large concourse of people.

From instructions as to rural delivery we find the following of much importance: "The roads must be good; this is absolutely essential. There must be no unbridged creeks or streams not fordable at all seasons of the year. A rural free delivery route should, as a rule, be 20 to 25 miles in length and serve 100 families. It should be so arranged that the carrier will not be required to retrace or travel the same road twice the same day." Now can a single rural route be established in Lumpkin or several other mountain counties according to these instructions? We believe not.

Mining Notes.

Mr. Campbell is still at work on the eight foot vein recently found on the Singleton property with good results.

From four tons of ore last week Jack Townsend and James Adams made fifty-four pennyweights of pure gold. It came from a vein found on the Standard Company's property.

Down on the Briar Patch things are moving along as usual. Nothing new to report this week but we expect to be able to give you something of much interest very soon.

Mr. Jaquish, general manager of the Etowah Gold Mining and Milling Co., after an absence of a short while in New York, has returned. He sent up to Dahlonega this week for more carpenters and we judge from this that he is making things hum down that way.

From a letter received from Mr. Wm. M. Fisher this week, who is largely interested in the Consolidated property, we learn that the company aims to resume work here at an early day, as he says: "We expect to put in the cyanide process this spring and work it for all it is worth."

Down at the Lockhart they are doing well considering the time they work. The pump and machinery is old and requires a good deal of time in making repairs. It is one of the best mines in this country, with large gold bearing veins that have been worked to a considerable depth, proving that it is certainly a good deep mine, but the parties working it are not able to put in the proper machinery could they secure a long enough lease to justify them.

We have abundance of soapstone in Lumpkin county above and below Dahlonega. The leads run clear across the county, and much of it has been used for window sills and the construction of fire places in Dahlonega, and in the county chimneys are now standing that were built from this soapstone seventy-five years ago, and yet none of the state geologists have ever mentioned even as much as a speck of soapstone being in Lumpkin county. Same way by kaolin. We have plenty of it, but no one knows it outside of the county. State geologists and their assistants could find out more and be of greater benefit to Georgia if they would notify the people of each county through the local papers of the time they expect to visit such counties. Then the people living outside of town owning any kind of mineral property could come in and present them with their samples and carry them to the property where found. By this means they would learn more in less time than they do now.

As stated last week work had been resumed at Crown Mountain. Some rain had fallen and it was believed there would be plenty of power to enable the manager to start up the mill and keep it going until the completion of the Gorge power. But after the rain ceased the water soon got down so low that the little light stamp mill was only able to run a few shifts, the plates showing up well. It rained heavier Sunday night, enabling them to start the little mill again some time on Tuesday, with the hopes of putting twenty or thirty stamps of the big mill in motion, but so far they have been unable to do so as there is not yet enough power to run the little ten stamp mill, and any of the big mill and the pump at the same time, but the light stamp mill has been running both day and night since Tuesday. The mine cannot be expected to pay until sufficient power is had to run the plant on full time, for the expenses are nearly as much to run a portion of it as all. So we have given our correspondents interested the facts about the condition of Crown Mountain in a nut shell.

The McAfee-Lind Mining Co. have completed their ten stamp mill, and are now running a Dean pump, which lifts the water to a height of 220 feet into a reservoir 150 feet long, 12 feet wide and 4 deep. Pipe line runs from reservoir to the cut 300 feet below the giant and from cut to the mill house, and the company, through its general manager, W. H. McAfee, has developed nine gold bearing veins from six inches to two feet wide. During the construction of the work, there has been taken out by tunnel and hauled to the mill 120 tons. This was beat on a five stamp mill and produced 555 pennyweights of burnt off gold. Now they have the pump in successful operation sluicing the ore direct to the mill. There cannot be any doubt of the utmost success of this mine paying a handsome dividend on the investment, as it is the first mill ever erected on the property, and there is enough ore in sight to keep this mill running for the next fifteen years, and it is expected that the Company will realize one-third as much free gold in future line as they will make on the mill. It is no exaggeration to state that this is the best equipped mine of its capacity now being operated in this gold belt. The mine is owned and operated by men who desire to fully prove that the mines in this section can be made to pay by the proper management, and all that is needed is a truthful statement concerning them, for it is a well known fact that there has been less failures in legitimate mining here than in any other business. But we are free to admit that there has been schemers and speculators here as in all mining camps, who, through ignorance of the true value, or for the purpose of making money regardless of the true developments of our mining belt, causing a great drawback to it. But the day is not far distant when mining here will be the coming industry of our country, and in other counties where gold has been made in the past.

In our last weeks issue we briefly noted a new discovered vein at the Jumbo Mine. We learn that this find is of much more importance than we then supposed. In fact, it turns out to be the richest and best defined vein yet discovered on the property. Since our notice this vein has been stripped for over twenty feet and shows more uniformity, both in size and richness, than any we have heard of. It is regular and can be seen easily as it has been well stripped and stands well up above the out. While the management states that the gold is fine and as a rule can only be seen in the quartz with a glass, all miners agree that veins carrying fine gold are more apt to be uniform and continuous. While no assay of this vein has been made the pannings show values not often seen in this section. Several of our most reliable miners, as well as members of the company, have panned many samples from all parts of it and all agree for a well defined persistent vein that is unparalleled in this section. The lowest estimate of what it would yield by fire assay, is eighty dollars per ton, and none estimated the mill yield to be less than twenty-five dollars per ton. It is understood in this district that by mill test it includes all matter taken out together with the binding and other material necessary in mining on a vein of not less than four feet. This vein it is believed runs through the property. Present development and surface clearly indicate its continued regularity. This new find is about twenty feet east of the Mistletoe vein which, as has been before stated, is a part of the property which was not considered of any importance when development work began. Like the stone that the builders rejected—it may become the chief corner stone. It looks that way now. Development work continues and we hope we may soon chronicle other finds on this remarkable property.

WANTED.—A 10 stamp mill of the Hall pattern. Also one 400 gallon pump. Address, G. S. & F. M. Scofield, Empire Building, Atlanta, Ga.

A Few Memorable and Historical Facts.

The Seniors planted their class tree last Saturday. The exercises were genuine—indeed meritorious. The occasion will go down in the history of the college no less renowned than the class itself.

Doubtless the class is represented with the greatest diversity of will-be-professional men that the North Georgia College has ever had. It varies all the way from a water-boy who will work for forty cents a day and board himself, to a twentieth century sage and philosopher who is going to prove to the world in 1925 that the present knowledge of all the sciences is really not a beginning! He is going to show in minute detail how man evolved from the lizard up to the monkey, and from the monkey up to man proper. He is going to give a philosophic reason for the existence of so many jack legs in all professions and also the remedy.

The class is composed of numbers who are full of vim and determination. Their ability to work is shown by their actions. Mr. J. D. Gortatowsky, for instance, who is president of his class, yields the scepter of his mighty influence over his class by laying up in his room with a "weekly fever," while Mr. L. G. Fortson, under Mr. Gortatowsky's skillful directions, goes and gets a seven-year-old black jack for a class tree.

We hope, however, that our readers will not get the wrong conception of our statement, for Mr. Gortatowsky is a worker indeed. He does more work than any other man in college—to get out of work. He labors diligently in the Doctor's office from two o'clock till drill time, and at night he is kind enough to tender all his friends a visit, and the next day he recites the best of any in his class—who "hasn't prepared the lesson."

Our business department also has some excellent representations, Mr. Holden, for instance, says he has learned how to balance one account already. Mr. Steed says he can write a business letter to his father now and ask him for ten dollars once a week.

The agricultural department I expect is a head of them all. The class has three members who are going to graduate in agriculture. All of them are very studious. Mr. Rutherford says he has learned how to grow cotton and corn. Mr. Peacock says he believes he can pull a bell cord over a mile more scientifically than any body. Mr. G. J. Jek says he has learned more than all put together, for he has learned how to farm without work.

Well, as space is short, we cannot attempt to dwell further on the wonderful prospect of such a brilliant class. It only remains to say that if the world will just give it time it will prove its "faith in its works," and fifty years from now if they all haven't been in the changing it will be a typical model for the throngs who follow.

The hardest and most rain that has fallen here for many months came Sunday night.

The Largest Grape Vine.

The largest grape vine in the world is growing in the Capintaria valley, twelve miles east of Santa Barbara, Cal., and is called La Para Grande. It was started from a cutting sixty-one years ago by a young Spanish woman, Dona Avela. It is 8 feet and 4 inches in circumference at its base, and one of the horizontal branches measures more than three feet in circumference. The trellis covers about a third of an acre, and sixty heavy posts support it. The vine produces as many as 5,000 bunches annually, at a conservative estimate, and in good years many clusters measure 12 to 15 inches in length and weigh six to eight pounds. Its owner estimates that in 1895 the vine yielded ten tons of grapes.

Joseph Smith, president of the Mormon church at Salt Lake, has been married six times—wedded two at a time.

The democratic executive committee of Lumpkin county, meets here today at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding at what date to fix the county primary.

Col. W. A. Charters, chairman of the committee of the Ninth Congressional District, called a meeting of the body a few days ago, which convenes in Gainesville today for the purpose of fixing a date for the congressional primary.

Candidates should jump on the democratic band wagon and help furnish music right away. There are only two political parties in Lumpkin county now and you must not try to be neutral in politics and at the same time expect the democrats to carry you. If you do you will get left.

At a republican meeting in Hall county a few days ago there was an evident feeling of running Mr. J. H. Ashley of Dawson county, for congress. Postmaster W. H. C. Tate of Dahlonega, was suggested as a suitable person to represent the district in the National Convention at Chicago in June.

The following was taken from an exchange and contains more truth than can be seen in it by an indifferent reader: "Man's business requires haste. The average business and professional man eats in a hurry and gets dyspepsia. He walks in a hurry and gets apoplexy. He talks in a hurry and gets the lie. He does business in a hurry and becomes bankrupt. He reads in a hurry and is superficial. He votes in a hurry and produces corruption. He marries in a hurry and gets a divorce. He trans his children in a hurry and develops spendthrifts and criminals. He gets religion in a hurry and forgets it in a hurry. He makes his will in a hurry and leaves a legal contest. He dies in a hurry and goes to the devil—and his tribe increases."

Last week a gale swept over 75,000 acres of prairie in Comanche county, Kansas, inflicting a loss of $200,000. Other counties were also visited. Estimate loss by the wind and fire are as follows: Vinson $8,000, Hobart $40,000, Lawton $5,000, a smaller town aggregated $500,000. Several lives were lost. There had been no rain for months and the people were powerless to control the fire.

Abuse and censure will never win a man or woman over to your way of thinking. It is the divine right of everybody to have opinions of their own, and if you cannot persuade them to agree with you by effective arguments and kindness, nothing else under the sun will change them.—Waycross Herald.

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902. I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the cramps. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and ringing in the brain. What to try I knew not, but it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

DEMOCRATIC RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Executive Committee of Lumpkin
County, March 12, 1904.

It is hereby resolved by the Democratic Executive Committee of Lumpkin county:

(1.) That in pursuance of instructions passed by the State Executive Committee held February 29th, 1904, a general primary election be held in said county of Lumpkin on the 20th day of April, 1904, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for governor, secretary of state, comptroller general, state treasurer, attorney general,
state school commissioner of agriculture, prison commissioner, chief justice of the Supreme court and one associate justice of the Supreme court.

(2.) It is further ordered that on the said 20th day of April, 1904, and at the same time and under the same rules and regulations, there shall be held in the said county of Lumpkin a general primary election for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the legislature, for ordinary, for clerk of the Superior court, for sheriff, for tax collector, tax receiver, treasurer, county
surveyor, and coroner.

(3.) It is ordered further that no one shall be allowed to vote for the above named officers except qualified white democratic voters, who have registered in the year 1903, or before the 10th day of April, 1904.

(4.) The Executive Committee of each district are hereby appointed managers of said election in their respective districts and authorized to appoint such assistants as they deem necessary in holding said election, and upon the failure of any said committeemen to act or to make the appointments, any three qualified white democratic voters of said district may hold said election. The secretary of the committee is hereby instructed to furnish the managers of each voting precinct with a list of the qualified voters of each district, said list, except in Dahlonega district, shall be confined to the white qualified voters of said district and in said Dahlonega district to be a list of the white voters of the entire county.

(5.) It is further ordered that the secretary of this committee shall furnish the managers of such voting place with such necessary blankets as may be necessary in holding said election.

(6.) It is further ordered that in the event the Democratic Executive Committee of the Ninth Congressional District of Georgia, shall order a primary election for the selection of a democratic candidate for congress on the said 20th day of April, 1904, that such election shall be consolidated with the other elections herein before provided for.

(7.) It is further ordered that the secretary of this committee in conjunction with the chairman shall have a ballot prepared, containing a list of the names of all the said state house officers and all candidates for congress, should said
Congressional primary be ordered, and all candidates for representative and all candidates for county officers of the said county of Lumpkin and have at least 2500 copies thereof printed and distributed to the managers of said election, said managers to furnish the same to the voters, as they may desire them and distribute the same among the respective candidates.

(8.) Each and every voter shall be required to use the ballot thus prepared and to strike from the ballot all the candidates except the one for whom he decides to vote.
No ticket shall be counted by the managers except the one herein
provided for.

(9.) Said voters are required to vote in the precinct in which they lives except those now accepted in the general election law.

(10.) It is further ordered that said primary election shall be held under the provisions of the general primary election law of this state.

(11.) It is further ordered that all white qualified voters without regard to past party affiliation who desire to align themselves with the democratic party, are entitled to vote in said primary election for representative and county officers and are cordially invited to do so, but every such voter who has not heretofore aligned himself with the democratic party who may vote in said primary, thereby pledges his honor that he becomes a democrat and that he will support the nominees of the democratic party. The right of every such voter to participate in said primary may be challenged, and unless when challenged he shall give his personal pledge that he is a democrat and will support the nominees of the democratic party his ballot shall not be counted. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee, in his district, to carefully observe the balloting and to challenge the vote of any person who did not, in the last general election for representative and county officers, act with the democratic party.

(12.) It is further ordered that the managers of the various precincts shall make their returns to the secretary of the Executive Committee at the court house in 21st day of April, 1904, and it is further ordered that said Execu-fully: Each candidate for congress

How Men and Women Love.

When a woman's love is strong it takes possession of her to the exclusion of pretty nearly everything else. When a man's love is strong it does the same, and, as the records of every-day crimes so to prove, with an even greater intensity; but a man has more self-control, more dissimulation, more cunning, which all go to screen his real self from the eyes of his fellows. He may not, I grant you, be ready to give up his horses, his trade, his books, his sports, or—unless, indeed, he be very young and very lovesick—
his dinner, but he, often enough, stakes his all upon one throw,
and, if unlucky, is ready to give up far more than all these put together—viz., his life itself.

Here and there a woman, puts an end to her existence through hopelessness, grief, and despair;
here and there she droops and fades, withering away silently because she has lost her chief hold on life; here and there she sinks into a heart-broken melancholy or gentle passivity; but how rarely do we find, even in the veriest abandonment of love and passion, that a woman will be driven thereby to commit a crime? A man, driven to desperation by a woman's perfidy or fickleness, kills her, or his rival or himself. A woman in like case may suffer a thousand times as much, but she will never harm the one she loves,
or has loved, or her successor.
She will make no tragedy—but her whole life is the tragedy. She will forgive—because she is a woman; but she will not forget—because she is a woman.—Mirror-Farmer.

New stockings being made for will not become fashionable, however, for the ladies to stand around with their hands in their pockets.—Dalton Citizen.

My Breath.

Shortness of Breath Is One of the Com- monest Signs of Heart Disease.

Notwithstanding what many physicians say, heart disease can be cured.
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure has permanently restored to health many thousands who had found no relief in the medicine (nearly all of homoeopathic) of regular practicing physicians.
It has proved itself unique in the history of medicine, by being so uniformly successful in curing these diseases.

Nearly always, one of the first signs of trouble is shortness of breath. Whenever it comes as a result of walking or running up stairs, or of other exercises, if the heart is unable to meet this extra demand upon its pumping powers—there is something wrong with it.
The very best thing you can do, is to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. It will go to the foundation of the trouble, and make a permanent cure by strengthening and renewing the nerves.
I know that Dr. Miles' New Heart
Cure is a great remedy. For a number of years I suffered from shortness of breath, weakening effects of nature in my left side. For months at a time I would be unable to lie on my left side, and I lay flat on my back would nearly suffocate. A friend advised me to take
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which I did with good results. I began to improve after taking several bottles of the Heart Cure, the pains in my side now entirely well. All these dreadful and threatening symptoms vanished and my health is a thing of the past.—J. J. DRAKE, Middletown, O.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 19, 1904.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Judge Emory Speer in a decision in poonage cases differs with Judge W. T. Newman who has ruled in similar cases.

It required a lady in Atlanta the other day only 18 minutes to get a divorce. Some of them can get a husband equally as quick.

We regret to say that Atlanta will have no more fairs, as the directors of the fair association have decided to sell all the buildings.

Justice Turner retired from the supreme bench last week and Judge B. D. Evans of the Middle Circuit, was at once appointed his successor.

Why is it when Mr. C. J. Jarard changed his address from Walnut to Willow, the postmaster up there didn't notify us? It's his duty.

As some one has reported that Uncle Dick Whelchel is down, he requests us to say to the people that he is still in the race and will be to the end for treasurer.

Mrs. Wood, who goes to the state prison two years for assaulting her husband, writes a letter to the Atlanta Constitution saying that she will not wear the stripes.

Those who did not register in this county last year are requested to do so by the 10th day of April, if they want to vote in the democratic primary April 29th.

We feel confident that Chief Justice Simmons will carry Lumpkin county, for those acquainted with him here know that he is the best qualified candidate in the field.

If you are a democrat and a candidate send in your name so we can tell the voters about it in time for the primary. If you are not you should not try to slip in to office under a democratic cloak.

The primary for governor and state house officers, members of congress and county officers in Lumpkin all come off on the 20th of next month. The time is short and candidates are getting a move on them.

The democratic executive committee of Cherokee county wants Parker for president. So far as we are concerned either will suit us, as they are both good men. The biggest trouble is getting them elected after the nomination.

Mr. Tom Bell, said to be candidate for congress from the Ninth District, opened his campaign by making a speech down at Buford last Monday night, accompanied by Richardson Bros band. Tom is a hustler and will likely give the people of Lumpkin county some free music before the campaign ends.

It's customary for candidates for congress to announce, and some districts in Georgia they have already done so, but so far in the 9th it's a blank. Just a week ago it was reported that Hon. F. C. Tate had decided to withdraw from the race. Had his announcement been in the papers of the 9th no such reports as this would have been made.

A negro named Dixon killed a Springfield, Ohio, policeman this week. A mob of white people gathered and not only killed him but they horribly burned him to a crisp. All of this is in a wonderful contrast to the act of the people of Columbus, Ga., who this week are raising a fine Vermont and Italian marble monument to a negro named Bragg Smith, who lost his life in trying to save the life of Superintendent of Public Works R. L. Johnson, last September. The South never hangs or burns a man but for one crime, and to be white or black the punishment comes the same.—Dalton Citizen.

The Democratic Meeting.

The democratic executive committee of Lumpkin county, met in the court house here last Saturday, with John H. Moore in the chair and M. G. Head, as secretary. Dr. H. C. Whelchel represented Martin's Ford district by proxy, and W. B. Townsend Jones' Creek. In the absence of J. H. Redmond, William McGee represented Shoal Creek district temporarily. Since the last meeting S. D. Grindle had moved from Crumby's district, causing a vacancy, and G. B. Beasley was elected to fill the unexpired term. After all this business was finished the resolutions, to be found on our first page, were introduced by Dr. H. C. Whelchel. Capt. F. M. Williams was opposed to the paragraph closing the gates to republicans to a certain extent, but the committee didn't agree with him and the resolutions were passed. Then a temperance plank, by Mr. J. W. Williams was read, but the meeting adjourned without taking any action on it.

Are Democrats and Will Stand by the Nominees.

In our issue of the 19th, we stated that it was reported that there were republican candidates running in Lumpkin county subject to the democratic primary, and asked that all candidates who were democrats and willing to stick to the nominees, either elected or defeated at the primary, to send us their names for publication, so the people of this county might not be deceived in casting their ballots in the primary. So far, the following is the list. Others will be added as they are sent in:

R. M. Bryson.
W. S. Huff.
James Healan.
G. D. Bruce.
F. L. Reese.
G. H. McGuire.
J. L. Davis.
W. J. Worley.
J. C. Stargel.

Dr. E. W. Watkins, candidate for congress, made a speech here Wednesday before a small audience. His speech however was not of the small kind but convinced us that he is a good man, well qualified for the position he seeks, and if elected no doubt would make us a better congressman than the man that's in there now, drawing his twenty-five dollars every day, getting along first-rate, having a good time, resting easy, and who imagines everybody else is resting as easy as himself.

The above paragraph is clipped from the Cleveland Courier, the editor being a republican, explains his child-like expressions. This is what all the congressmen receive. Should Mr. Tate serve for less? What do you want Mr. Tate to do? Turn to a republican? Then in the eyes of the Courier he would be the ablest congressman in Georgia.

Don't forget what Mr. C. A. Conrad, acting Fourth Assistant Post-Master General, said in his letter published in The Nugget, "That Hon. F. C. Tate had caused 37 rural routes established in the 9th District since July 1, 1903, which is more than have been established in any other district in the state of Georgia during the time." The above is exactly what Mr. Conrad said. This shows that Mr. Tate is not idle, and the people of Lumpkin county can be accommodated if they will send the department a petition signed by 100 heads of families in a 20 or 25 mile route, as the law directs. This we don't believe can be done here. We have not the population. Mr. Tate can't help this.

At the republican meeting down at Gainesville last Saturday Postmaster Tate of Dahlonega and Deputy Collector Jack Spence of Picken county, were the delegates chosen to represent the 9th District in the national republican convention at Chicago.

The Atlanta News and Journal are divided about the democratic candidates for president. The first wants Hearst and the latter Parker. A Parker club has already been organized in that city.

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

This week during Judge Bloodworth's court in Atlanta attorney Boyhn made some strong remarks towards the Judge which resulted in the lawyer receiving a scalp wound by a paper weight from the hands of the official.

The candidates of Fulton county, except for coroner, will be assessed $200 to defray the expenses of the campaign. The latter candidates will have to pay $30, showing that the fee is much higher in Fulton than Lumpkin.

Thirty-eight carriages and thirty-six horses are kept for private use by Republican official subordinates in Washington at a cost of thirty thousand dollars and their thirty coachmen are borne on the messenger roll and paid with public money.—Waycross Herald.

There seems to be a disposition in some quarters to kick on the early primary, says the Cobb County Courier. Had the day been fixed later on we would have heard just as much complaint. Why should not the state convention fix a semi-annual day for the state primary, say the third Thursday in April, and let all know just when to expect to be ready? If in future an opposing party should arise making it necessary to time the democratic primary differently a change could be made. A fixed day would give all an equal showing and do away with the kicking so common, some because of the earliness and others because of the lateness.

Some few persons are belly-aching around because the democratic executive committee of Lumpkin county last Saturday didn't put a temperance plank in its resolutions throw out ballots of candidates or whose friends who use liquor during the campaign. The wise legislators have already made ample provisions for this violation of law, and if grand jurors fail to take the matter up an executive committee cannot be expected to. Another thing. Some of the committee consulted the wisest lawyers of Dahlonega before the meeting, and they stated that a committee had no right to leave or order ballots cast for a candidate thrown out.

A special from Washington says: Commissioner of Pensions Ware, with the approval of Secretary Hitchcock, last Wednesday promulgated the most important pension ruling that has been issued in a long time. It directs that beginning on April 13 next, if there is no contrary evidence and all other legal requirements have been met, claimants for pension under the general act of June 27, 1890, who are over 62 years old shall be considered as disabled one-half in ability to perform manual labor and shall be entitled to $9 a month; over 65 years to $8; over 68 years to $10, and over 70 years to $12, the usual allowances at higher rates continuing for disabilities other than age. The order will not be retroactive.

Making Manufacturing Co. New York & Green Hill, Tenn.

FOR SALE BY DR. C. H. JONES.

A strike is on at Ranger, N. C., where the Ducktown Copper Co. has a stone quarry, says the Ellijay Courier. The hands struck because the boss was too "bossy" and was also hiring negroes in preference to white men.

C. H. Jones Successful.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence Dr. C. H. Jones, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles that Dr. Jones is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

Wellborn Grizzle got six months imprisonment this week for blacking.

Mrs. Strickland has just returned from Atlanta with a beautiful line of millinery and dress goods.

Mrs. Martha Watkins, who resided in Niblewell district, died last Friday.

Mr. Allison Smith of White county, was on a visit here to relatives last week.

We are glad to see Miss Pearl Berryback at Mrs. Strickland's Millinery Store.

Mr. J. L. Davis requests us to return thanks to the many kind people for the aid they rendered him during the sickness and death of his wife.

Capt. F. M. Williams, of Two Run, Ga., spent a day or so in Dahlonega last week. The Captain is always a welcome visitor to our place.

Mr. E. W. Strickland of Dahlonega, received the sad intelligence of the death of his brother Tolbert, which occurred last Friday in Gwinnett county.

The other night just as religious services were being closed out at Mr. Joe Forests the floor fell through. No one hurt. Just got to a firmer foundation.

Prof. Davis has the college grounds presenting the appearance of a farm where something will be produced this year, for the first time since the establishment of this branch. Prof. Davis has the praise of the entire board of trustees, for each one feels confident that he is the right man in the right place.

Important! Read!—We give 65 cents per 100 cash, or 75 cents per 100 trade for all Sweepstakes tobacco tags. And for all P. H. Hanes, we give 40 cents cash or 50 cents in trade per 100. And for all Sweepstakes tags taken off tobacco bought in our store, we give one cent each, cash.

One of our patrons said TIE NUGGET suited him better than any weekly paper in Georgia. The only objection he had it was not large enough. Remember that the small woman's kisses are just as sweet (sometimes sweeter) than a larger woman. We boil our articles down which enables us to give the "pure stuff."

Our electric lamps 16 and 20 candle power are 25 cents but your money returned cheerfully if you are not satisfied with their life. White wash brushes, good ones 25 cents. Horse brushes for main and tail and old style good ones 25 cents. Enamelled sauce pans and coffee pots good ones 25 cents, and higher. Fine white window shades with lace inserting 63 cents. The best table damask ever shown in Dahlonega 62½ and 90 cents.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

The latest sensation occurred in Yahoola district a few days ago according to reliable information, causing this district to be in the lead as usual. Uncle Lark Helton, who has been absent down the country for some time, returned last week and carried away Mrs. "Pet" Gooch, widow of the late Samuel Gooch, which is going to cause Yahoola church to lose one of its members at its next meeting, as the rest of the members do not like the action of Mrs. Gooch, even if she is 62 years of age and Helton about the same, if not older. This proves that people's love for each other never grows less, matters not how many years they may live. Helton has a living wife and several grown children, but he and his wife seem to be unable to get along happily together as they made a failure some years ago after a separation of more than 20 years. To say the least of it, this must certainly be a lovely old couple, especially when two souls with a single thought, two hearts that beat as one.

That's right. Bring along your job work.

Lumpkin county's treasury is again empty.

Mr. John Cain and Mrs. Kenny Thomas were wedded last week.

General Hardin of Kentucky, was here a day or two last week.

Smith & Bro. are receiving new goods of all kinds that will interest purchasers.

Some more new candidates this week. Read their announcements and do what you think's best.

Mrs. E. S. Copeland and daughter of Gainesville, are on a visit to relatives in Dahlonega.

Mr. W. S. Cavender went down to Atlanta to be treated for a cancer on the face this week.

Some twelve or fourteen persons joined the Baptist church at this place last Sunday night.

Mr. Thomas Ray, who is about to lose the sight of one eye, went down to Atlanta this week to have it examined.

Ed Mays, another one of Lumpkin county's old time negroes died in the eastern portion of the county last Saturday.

Our patrons and friends will please accept our thanks for their new subscriptions and renewals received last Saturday.

We had a light hail here last Monday night, showing that the weather man is very thoughtful in giving us a variety of weather.

The recent published temperance program didn't take place on account of the weather but will occur the first Sunday in next month.

Mr. Jacob Dowdy got a splinter stuck in one of his eyes this week while getting wood. It was removed by a physician and it is hoped that the sight is not injured.

It is said that City Marshal Harrison of Gainesville, got several of the Lumpkin county men in the calaboose last week, while they were returning from Atlanta U. S. court, caused by too much liquor.

The revenue officers made two or three raids down in Dawson county last week and burst into several of the blockaders arrangements by destroying an illicit distillery or two and capturing near a hundred gallons of liquor.

Mr. J. L. Davis, who is a candidate for county treasury, requests us to state that on account of the sickness and loss of his wife it will render him unable to see many of the voters and therefore asks their kind consideration when it comes to casting their ballots.

The many friends of Mr. Joe Jarrard will regret to hear of his death, which occurred in Hall last Saturday. The deceased had lived in Lumpkin county all his life up to some three months ago who has many relatives and friends in this county who mourn his loss.

We were just thinking the other day, while the school boys were firing their guns and setting out a black gum or some other worthless tree, how much more profitable it would be if, on these occasions, they would use a fruit tree of some kind. It would be of much more pleasure to them to pluck the fruit from it after their school days are over, should they ever have an opportunity of visiting the old college grounds again, and enjoy happy thoughts of all that were present in the days of long ago.

Grover Sollins of this county, came near getting killed the other day by jumping from a car window while on his way home from Atlanta below Gainesville. Some of that Decatur street liquor had caused him to be most too boisterous and when they put him under arrest he broke through the window at the earliest opportunity, and was picked up considerably bruised. We believe he is the same person wanted by the sheriff of Lumpkin county, who "split" the river some time ago in escaping from Sheriff Davis.

Plenty of ice last Monday morning.

Peach trees will soon be in bloom.

The students contemplate giving a dance at the dormitory this evening.

Besides oranges and nearly all kind of fruits you will find nice hams at C. W. Satterfields.

After July 1st, Tube and Yahoola will have a mail three times a week. It's only twice now.

Call at Drug Store and get some Magic Stock Food, Black Draught and Dr. Jones' Sarsaparilla.

Ten dollars and trimmings is what it cost Mr. Joe Ricketts for being unruly on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. J. S. Chester, who moved from this county to Roswell, Ga., some time ago, has been quite sick but is improving.

Tax Receiver Healan has received his digests and blanks and will soon start round receiving tax returns in this county.

While out electioneering over in Shoal Creek district last Wednesday, Mr. D. C. Stow's horse ran away and damaged the buggy.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Jess Castleberry, who was reported to be at the point of death last week down in Alabama, was some better at last accounts.

See city tax notice elsewhere and be governed accordingly. Give your property in at its true value and there will be no need of kicking afterwards.

Mr. C. W. Satterfield has returned from his recent trip off, to see if he could find a place that suited him better than Dahlonega, but Dahlonega is his choice so far.

Mr. John Tillson gave the young gentlemen of Dahlonega and college a smoker last Saturday evening at the residence of his father. It proved to be a delightful affair.

If you want THE NUGGET and Atlanta Daily News, Weekly Constitution or the Atlanta Semi-Weekly Journal we will take pleasure in securing either for you. Of course THE NUGGET is the main paper we are looking after.

The scent of whiskey on the breaths of some parties attending church at Philippi, at a recent meeting, is causing some complaint. It will be to the interest of those who take their drams to remain away from church while under its influence, in all probability.

Mr. Wilkes, of the Mecklenburg Iron Works of Charlotte, N. C., was among the visitors at Hall's Villa this week. His company has furnished many of the mines of this section with suitable machinery which gives such satisfaction as to cause those interested in the business to always be glad to see him come.

There is no reason why Dahlonega shouldn't be full of summer visitors every season. We have the most delightful and pleasant place for health seekers, but if we do not send out invitations we cannot expect any one to come this way. Now is the time to begin work if we expect to do anything. Of course, it will take some money. But no town or city can expect to make money unless it spends some.

B. M. Hall of Atlant, a former professor in the N. G. A. College at Dahlonega, but now residing in Atlanta, and member of the consulting board of civil engineers of the geological survey, but who is now in the reclamation service, is expecting to leave at any time for the arid plains of the west in an effort to reclaim the vast tracts of land in that section that they may be used for farming purposes. The government owns many thousands of acres of land throughout the arid belt, and the object is to reclaim this land that it may supply an outlet for the rapidly increasing population which is becoming so great in the prosperous sections. Mr. Hall will be gone for many months.

Charlie Crisson, who has been in Tennessee for several months, is here on a visit to his father and other relatives.

Mr. Doyle Moore of Dahlonega, went down to Gainesville this week to accept a book-keepers place at John A. Smith Manufacturing Cos.

Messrs. William Ricketts and John Redmon, after spending several months down in Florida, building a dredge boat, returned last Saturday.

When you want to buy a horse don't forget that you can get it by calling on Mr. J. M. Brookshire, who has just returned from Atlanta with some good ones.

The many friends of Mr. Spurge Silvey in Dahlonega, will regret to learn that he is now in the hospital at Atlanta with consumption, with no hopes of his recovery.

Dr. H. Palmour, the well known dentist of Dawson county, will be in Dahlonega on March 20th for a two weeks stay to do dental work. Be sure and remember the date.

Mr. W. Hightower, who runs a saw mill a few miles above Dahlonega, went up the other morning and to his surprise found that some one had carted off his large $55 belt.

The streets of Dahlonega will soon be lit up by electricity. The chairman of the street committee made arrangements with the manager of the Consolidated Co. this week.

Mr. Paekard of Turkey Hill, was in Dahlonega last Monday. We are always glad to see this old gentleman come to town, for he is jovial, good natured and makes everybody about him feel pleasant.

An "Old Maids Convention" will be held at the college Monday night, March 28, 1904. The small fee of 15 cents each, or 25 cents for gentlemen and lady will be charged for admission. The fund will be used for the benefit of the Corona Society. Everybody invited.

If the ladies want a nice spring hat they should call at Anderson & Jones' Bargain Store at once and get pick and choice. A new line of ladies' and misses' hats just arrived, going at bargains. Quick sales and short profits is their motto.

All who are in need of clothing should call at Anderson & Jones' Bargain Store and see the nice lot just received, at prices that will astonish all. Boys' and youths' old suits. Norfolk suits for the little fellows. Also men's old pants and suits, ranging from $3.00 to $18.00. Call at once, as they are going and going fast.

You will find at M. J. Williams', plows, plow stocks and handles, single trees, trace chains, hoes, &c., &c. One new wagon, $35.00. Big line of all kinds of shoes. Clocks, iron wedges, smoothing irons; heel plates, 5c per pair. Good line of summer dress goods. Over 200 pairs of men and boys' pants. Go and see.

For the next few weeks the campaign is going to be warm, and still warmer if a republican or so-called independent comes out after the primary, and THE NUGGET will keep on a hot track. THE NUGGET will work for the democratic party in a reasonable way, though if it displeases any of our subscribers who differ with us, they are at liberty to discontinue their paper at any time, until the battle is over, or for all time to come if they wish.

Mr. G. W. Gaddis, one of the most prosperous farmers of Union county, was in Dahlonega with another big load of potatoes, raised on top of the Blue Ridge last Tuesday. He only made a little over a hundred bushels last year on account of the drought, but they are fine ones. While taking up some out of the bed the other day he found a rats' nest in one with four or five little ones in it, which gives the reader some idea of the size of the potatoes raised on top of the mountain.

Mining Notes.

The mining outlook here is very bright.

Preparations are being made to start up the Summerour mine in the lower portion of this county.

Mr. Wharton Anderson of the Calhoun, was in Dahlonega last Sunday who reported work going steadily on down at this mine.

Messrs. Huff and Moose, who are running a lift over on the Columbia, report very satisfactory results although they are in old works at the present.

The Lockhart is still improving. They are now taking ore from a big vein recently struck which is much larger and richer than was ever expected.

The Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co. is getting a move on it. A special force of hands have been put to work on the Ball creek canal, so as to complete it as soon as possible.

The extreme cold weather of the west is causing the miners of that section to turn their attention in this direction. Scarcely a week passes but what some of them are down examining the gold fields of Lumpkin county.

A number of Nebraska and Illinois gentlemen have been down to visit the Briar Patch property this week, in company with Judge Rusk, to-wit: Walmar, Shrant, Tendle and Kouts. They spent two days in looking over the property and were all well pleased with the mine.

Things down at the Singleton are getting in tip top shape. The plates are showing up well, the ore is coming from the large rich vein recently discovered on the property by Samuel Castleberry, a successful colored miner. In one day from the float ore of this vein Sam made over a eighty pennyweight of gold.

Mr. Ewing, the mining expert who has been here for some two or three weeks examining the Consolidated Company's property, is still at work making a thorough test of all it owns in the county, and from what we learn he is already satisfied that the mines are good and the gold can be saved by some profitable method.

They made their weekly clean up at the Ingersoll & Crisson dredge boat last Monday and as usual the result gave entire satisfaction. Dredging for gold in the Chestatee river is a very profitable business and other persons owning or controlling property through which this stream runs, would act wisely by putting in boats and working it for gold.

A couple of Ohio gentlemen have been down this week looking over the Jumbo property, both of whom were well pleased with what they saw. One was a miner who made a thorough examination of things generally, and expressed himself as being very much surprised at the many valuable veins already opened. The Jumbo is an eye opener.

Mr. J. T. Miller, manager of the Briar Patch Mine, was up a while last Wednesday, who reported everything as being pushed with a rush on this property, in order to get the canal completed to the mine as soon as possible. The Briar Patch is No. 1 property and the company is bound to make a success as soon as it gets the water on the mine and commence operating it on full time.

All damages caused by the late rain have been made good and the mill is again running on full time down at the celebrated Barlow. Quite a number of miners are taking out ore from various places on the property, all of whom are making money. Mr. Tregent has a lease on the entire property who sub leases to reliable native miners. He operates one himself, and is as industrious as a bee which has a heap to do with the success of any mine.

Last week we stated that the pump and none of the stamps of the big mill of the Crown Mountain Co. could be run at the same time. We meant to say the air compressor instead of the pump. Superintendent Crisson has been able to run a portion of the big mill this week and the plates are said to be showing up well. Work is being pushed on the Gorge dam which, when completed, will furnish all the power necessary for Crown Mountain and much to spare.

The excavation for the mill cistern Huntington mills, is being made down at the Betz. We hope they will be a success but heretofore the Huntingtons have been a failure in this county. They won't do the work satisfactory where the ore is hard, but we understand that much of the material down there is soft which will give them a better chance. They proved a failure at Crown Mountain, which has about as much soft ore as any mine in this section. But let us hope for the best.

Things down at the Etowah are being pushed with a vim. Superintendent Jaquish is eating no idle bread for he is anxious to see the mill running. It is nearing completion and it is believed now that it will be ready to start within the next thirty days. Work is being pushed on the canal at the same time and the lumber for the flume is expected in next week. This is a valuable gold mine and we are all eager to see the mill start. If the company doesn't make good money under the able supervision of Mr. Jaquish we will be very much surprised.

In reference to gold mining here the Atlanta News of Wednesday, says: Georgia was the first gold producing district in the United States and from 1828 to 1848 northeast Georgia was the gold producing section of the union and millions of dollars were taken out. For years preceding the civil war the general government maintained a mint at Dahlonega. The civil war stopped that and after that struggle the mint was never reopened. The great discoveries of 1849 so overshadowed the Georgia district that it dropped into the background, and the mining in the Georgia district has for many years been of a desultory character and confined to placer work. Even this method has during the past thirty years produced a large amount. Unlike the other gold producing sections the placer mining has not been followed by scientific methods and the industry has naturally languished. This is now being remedied and there appears every prospect that a new wealth creating industry will soon be added to the state. After thoroughly feeling their way and proving the ground one large concern is now operating successfully, using hydraulic method on soft material and stamp mills on the rock. Another large concern which expended large sums in preliminary work has now on the ground an expert who is studying the situation with a view to enabling the company to get the best results from the money now invested and that may hereafter be invested. Still another has done such development work as to cause the present owners to believe that they may have what will eventually prove to be the largest producer in the United States. There is now every indication that in the near future the old red hills of northeast Georgia will give annually several millions of dollars of imperishable wealth to the world. There is something fascinating about the pursuit of gold hunting, and there is also something heroic about the labors men undergo in its pursuit, but better than the fascination of the pursuit or the heroism of the hunters is the solid fact that it is clean money. In many callings one man's gain is the product of another's loss, but when an ounce of gold is added to the world's supply it is pure metal rendered up by mother earth as the result of honest toil, and the man who makes his "pile" by legitimate mining has the solid comfort of knowing that others have not been impoverished that he may dwell in luxury.

Mr. Roosevelt and the Negro.

To the Editor of "The Examiner"—Dear Sir: I have read your interesting editorial in today's issue of your paper on "Let the South Alone, Mr. Roosevelt," and consider it the strongest argument I have ever read in the direction it is intended.

I am a Californian, but for two years represented one of New York's largest tobacco houses in the South, and can readily understand how necessary it is for outsiders (and I class all living outside the Dixie line as such) to leave the South alone and permit the administration of affairs in that section to be conducted by the whites.

Mr. Roosevelt cannot, nor can any one else, unless he has actually lived in the South, understand how harmful it is to the negro and the welfare of the South itself—saying nothing of the intense humiliation the whites suffer—to appoint a negro to any office in that section.

If the President will leave that section of the country alone until he fully understands conditions he will be doing a very wise thing; but if he thinks from the one or two hasty trips he has made there that he knows it all and wishes to recognize the negroes on the level

MAJOR JOHN F. C. TILLSON,

Commandant of Cadets North Georgia Agricultural College

We present to our readers a faithful picture of Maj. Tillson, who is now serving his second appointment as commandant of our cadets. He was first appointed in 1897, and when the Spanish American war began was ordered to join his regiment, the 14th U. S. Infantry. For about four years the college was without the service of an active army officer, but the work was, for a part of the time, performed by Capt. Cusick, a retired army officer. On his return from the Philippines and Chinese war, and while serving as Major of the 4th Regiment, and in Command of Fort McIntosh, Texas, he was again assigned by the Secretary of war as Commandant of Cadets at the college here, being perhaps the only officer holding the rank of Major and in active duty, that has been assigned to any Agricultural college in the United States, as Professor of Military science. This appointment was made upon urgent request of the Board of Trustees, and the friends of the college in congress from Georgia. His fine military knowledge, and excellent discipline has been of inculcated service to the college. Among his former students are two Cadet Majors, now with the 14th Regiment in the Philippines, to wit: 1st Lt. Fred Price, and 2nd Lt. Smith Harris. Capt. Noel Grant, now a paymaster in the navy, was also, instructed by Maj. Tillson, together with numerous other young men now filling important stations in government and railway and telegraph and telephone service.

A short biographical sketch of Maj. Tillson may not be uninteresting. We obtain the facts from a recent publication, "Who's who in New York city and State." Born at Elmira, New York, May 26, 1856; was graduated from Elmira Free Academy in 1874; appointed to West Point Military Academy in 1874, and graduated June 21, 1878, and assigned to 5th Infantry, and was commissioned 1st Lieutenant 1883; made Captain in 14th Infantry March, 1897 and became Major of 4th Infantry March, 1902. Performed military service in Montana, Texas, Florida, Louisiana and Georgia, and on recruiting service at Cleveland, Ohio. It was while in the Philippines, his Regiment, the 14th Infantry, was dispatched with the China Relief Expedition in 1900; after the capture of Pekin, Maj. Tillson was made provost marshal; American District of Pekin, and served in this capacity until the allied armies left China.

He received the thanks of Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang for humane administration in Pekin. After the return of the Regiment to America, Maj. Tillson was placed in command of Fort Mackintosh, Texas.

Maj. Tillson, while living in Dahlonega, has always been accompanied by Mrs. Tillson, whom he married in Frankfort, Kentucky as Miss Adelaide Mock. Their household is a happy one, brightened by the presence of their accomplished daughter, Miss Marina Tillson, who has been for several years a popular pupil of Agnes Scott College at Decatur, Ga. Their only son, John Tillson, Jr., will enter West Point Military Academy this summer, being appointed thereto by President Roosevelt.

These excellent people have, during their stay in Dahlonega, added much to the social enjoyment and pleasures of the town. Maj. Tillson delights in his horses, and when not engaged in college work may often be seen driving his Texas ponies in real army style. His work at the college is appreciated by the Trustees, and by his fellowmembers of the faculty. For years to come his labors will be remembered gratefully by hundreds of young men, and young women too, who have been benefited by his learning and discipline.

MR. TATE WILL RUN.

False Rumors Set at Rest by a Letter From our Congressman.

In regard to the recent rumors that Mr. Tate would decline to stand for re-election, much information may be gained by reading the following correspondence:

GAINESVILLE, GA., Mar. 12, 1904.

Hon. F. C. Tate,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

MY DEAR SIR: It has been published in the newspapers that there was some doubt as to your being a candidate for re-election to Congress in the coming election. Because of these publications many persons are confused. In view of these facts, I request that you address the people of the Ninth district, through the Eagle, so that they may fully understand the situation.

Very truly, yours,
W. H. CRAIG,
Editor Eagle.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
March 14, 1904.

MR. W. H. CRAIG,
Editor Eagle, Gainesville, Ga.:
MY DEAR SIR: Yours just received. The publication in the newspapers, referred to in your letter, does me a great injustice. The effort to construe my failure to engage in a canvass of our district, while I have been tied down here in Washington by my official duties since the beginning of the extra session early in November, as evidence that I would not be a candidate for re-election, is unwarranted, unjust, and unfair. I am a candidate for re-election, and thank you for this opportunity of so announcing to the people of the Ninth Congressional district.

As you are aware, I am endeavoring to pass a public building bill for your city, and have already secured a site for this building, and that I am also vitally interested in the bill reported by my committee, and now on the calendar, for the establishment of a School of Mines and Mining. This bill will give to the North Georgia Agricultural College at Dahlonega a School of Mines and Mining for the purpose of training the boys of our country as expert miners, mineralogists, and mining engineers. This is of the greatest importance to the people of our district, and especially to the mineral section. I am also interested in a bill, just reported by the Committee on Mines and Children's a Specialty.

Call and See my Spring Goods.

Mining, of which I am the ranking Democrat, for the establishment of a Mining Experimental Station. If I can secure the passage of this bill I hope to be able to locate this station, for testing minerals, in our section of the State. With measures like these, and others of great importance, pending before the House requiring my attention, I felt that it was my duty to remain here and look after the business of the people rather than abandon my post of duty to advance my personal political interest.

I take this opportunity of calling the attention of the people of the Ninth Congressional district to some of the considerations upon which my candidacy for re-election is based.

The office of a Congressman differs from a State or county office, for the work of shaping legislation in Congress is done almost entirely by committees, and only members of Congress who have had long service and experience are placed on important committees. I am now the ranking Democrat on two, and second on another, of the great committees of the House, and will be chairman of one of these committees if re-elected to Congress and the Democrats carry the House of Representatives, which I confidently believe we will be able to do. If a new man is sent here he must start at the foot and work his way up, and in view of the large increase in the number of Congressmen, from 357 to 386, no man can hope, even in the length of time I have been, in the future to secure the committee assignments that I now have.

While the office of Congressman is one of the highest in the gift of the people, I have always regarded it as a trust to be used for the benefit of the people rather than to be handed around from one man to another solely for the benefit of the holder and not for the benefit of the people. The people should have the opportunity to pass on the record of their Congressmen often at least every two years, but if that record is good it should be endorsed.

The highest usefulness of a Congressman to his people comes from his experience and familiarity with the numerous duties which he is called upon to perform. The service I have had in Washington has added to my experience and efficiency as the people's representative. The interest of our people has been my constant study since I have held the office of Congressman, and I believe my votes and utterances here will sustain my statement that I have always acted solely for the interest of our whole people. I have zealously looked after the personal interest of our people in matters here, and in this respect my usefulness to the people of our district, on account of my experience, has increased.

What I say about this office applies to every business life. The filling of a political office is but doing the business of the people, and in this business the fairest test that can be applied to any candidate is his intelligence, honesty, fidelity and experience. My record in Congress, on all questions of public interest, is well known, and that record I have the people of the Ninth Congressional district for a continuance of their support and confidence. In doing so, I renew to them the promise that in the future, as in the past, the best efforts of my head and heart shall be used in their interest, and in submitting my candidacy again to them I confidently rely upon their unbiased and enlightened judgment for a renewed expression of their confidence and approval of my course as their public servant.

Yours very truly,
F. C. TATE.

A Card From C. F. McAfee.

FELLOW CITIZENS OF LUMPKIN COUNTY:

Having been confined to my bed with inflammatory rheumatism since my announcement in THE NUGGET and Signal which has prevented me from taking an even start with my competitors for the office of Tax Collector of Lumpkin county. Having confidence in myself and the many kind solicitations by my friends, and hope to see you face to face, I desire to inform you that I am in the race to finish, and if I should share your confidence and votes on April 20th, the day fixed for the Democratic primary, I shall feel gratified, to my countrymen of the county that gave me birth, and pledge myself that I shall so conduct the affairs of the office of tax collector that you shall have no cause to regret having voted for me.

Yours obediently,
CHARLES F. MCAFEE.
The Woman who Makes Home Unhappy.

As a rule, women are more unselfish than men, but very often they lack the right kind of consideration for their husbands. They will treasure up all the cares and worries of the day for their husbands' ears when they come home at night probably feeling weary and tired. If the husband appears unsympathetic, the wife imagines herself a much injured person. Then follows "the little rift in the lute" that destroys the sweet harmony of the home. The woman who makes her home happy and who is always pleasing in her husband's eyes is the one who exercises those two indispensable qualities, tact and cheerfulness. Speaking mildly, the woman who "nags" has precious little loveliness in her character. Her husband deserves the greatest sympathy, for certainly the man with a "nagging" wife has an unhappy lot. A woman is only increasing her husband's faults when she is forever depicting them to him. One sweet quality in a woman will do more good than any number of reprovals.

A Minnesota cow recently slaughtered by Swift & Co., at their Chicago plant, was found to have in her stomach a ball of pins, firmly welded together with their points all turned inward and weighing fourteen ounces. This partially answers the mooted question, "What becomes of all the pins?" But whether our dairy experts will decide that pins, properly digested, possess milk-making properties, remains to be seen.

The committee in charge of the relief of the Gainesville storm sufferers shows from its recent report that over $55,000 were distributed.

Mr. Jesse Lumsden, a Natchezian, speaks of making the race for the senate, says the Cleveland Courier. Col. Underwood is already in the field.

Mr. F. H. Richardson, editor of the Atlanta Journal, died at his home at East Point last Saturday. The deceased had long reached the topmost round of his profession.

State Pension Commissioner Lindsey expected to finish paying off the indigent widows of 38 counties last Thursday. Now he will begin to take up the claims for 1895.

We have been informed by several parties that Mr. V. A. Higgins of Auraria, has withdrawn from the legislative race, but so far he has failed to notify us to take out his announcement.

It is reported that certain candidates in Lumpkin are determined to run after the primary whether they are the choice or not. If they do they will get knocked out in the second round as well as the first.

During the trial of Tom Cox, for the murder of Policeman Ben Dowell, December last, 1,000 witnesses were summoned before the jury and the jury was out on the a week and he will be hung in Tennessee.

How can a candidate, who has said that he is a republican nationally and a democrat locally, expect to get the support of the democrats in Lumpkin county? It is said that one candidate has made this assertion.

There are a number of tax defaulters in this county who, if they wish to register and take a hand in the primary, will have to come in and settle off all indebtedness with the state and county first and comply with the law, otherwise they might get into trouble.

It is said by Commissioner of the Pensions, Ware, that now on file in the senate committee at Washington, the service pension order will add to the list entitled to pensions $21,000 soldiers, who are more than 62 years old. At $6 per month the sum will be $23,112,000.

Chief Justice, T. J. Simmons, who is a candidate for re-election, is an old Confederate veteran and was wounded at Cold Harbor church in the seven days fight around Richmond. At the beginning of the war he organized the Crawford Grays and was made its first lieutenant. After a year's service in Virginia in the Sixth Georgia he was transferred to the Forty Fifth Georgia and fought all through the war, except the time he lay wounded in the hospital.

Carter Tate for Congress.

In urging the voters of the Ninth district to return Carter Tate to Congress it is not necessary to say aught against the character of either of the two gentlemen who have presented themselves for the favor of voters. They may or they may not be qualified to fill the high position which they seek. But we must be permitted to say that in our judgment this is not the time to throw overboard an experienced public servant for an untried one. The political waters have not yet been sufficiently troubled to authorize just any anxious soul to step in. So far as our observation goes there has been no demand or call from the press or voters of the district for any sort of opposition to Mr. Tate—certainly there had been no special call in favor of either of these two particular candidates, who are now seeking to represent this district. The necessity for a change exists solely in the brain of these two gentlemen where the desire was born.

We opine, when the time arrives that Mr. Tate can no longer please the people of the Ninth district in Congress, the people will likely take in a wider range of vision, and possibly select some one more likely to be able to fill the position. Certainly there must be more acceptable Congressional timber in the district than is now presented us to select from, if we have to select another incumbent.

Let us look for a moment at the proposition now before the people. These opposing candidates and their friends, if they have any, and we must believe they each have some following, say that Mr. Tate has filled the office quite a long time, perhaps longer than any of his predecessors in many years, and that he has all along been drawing a salary, which, if hoarded up, would make a comfortable little fortune. The fault, if any they find in Mr. Tate, is that he has not succeeded in getting pensions for the confederate soldiers, nor accomplished anything towards the removal of the negro to Africa, nor repealed the Internal Revenue Laws.

Mr. Tate, while he may not have accomplished impossible things, has pursued the even tenor of his way, and rose by regular steps from the lowest round of the ladder to several high positions on committees of the House, where he can now do and has been accomplishing more good for his constituents than almost any other southern Congressman at this time. In the event of the election of a Democratic president, which is a prospect that grows brighter every day, Mr. Tate will be chairman of some important committee and an influential member of other committees.

Just now he has in his hands some of the most important legislation for his immediate constituents that has been before congress in years. After years of faithful work he is about to succeed in getting for this section a School of Mines, that, in time will prove of incalculable benefit to North Georgia and the whole state. He is zealously laboring to put the agricultural Department of the N. G. A. College where it will be a source of benefit and profit to every farmer and farmer's son in this section of the state—all this and more.

His experience is now the common property of the whole people, and yet these same people are seriously asked to throw everything away because some one has conceived the idea that "it is now his time to go to congress."

Mr. Tate's position at this time must appeal to every honest voter in the district. He is now kept busy attending to the pressing duties of this session of congress. The numerous affairs entrusted to his keeping require his daily presence. Were he now to desert his post and come home to reply to all the insinuations and false charges made against him he would be at once chargeable with desertion.

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

But it is our opinion that when the hour comes when the great Democratic heart speaks at the ballot box it will be found that Carter Tate still possesses the confidence of the people. Now is not the time, while crossing a turbid stream, to think of "swapping horses." Our honest mountain voters cannot be swayed by tinkling cymbals, brass bands, nor the foolish idea of getting pensions for confederate soldiers.

Away with all this clap trap, and let us return the present incumbent Carter Tate, who has represented us so faithfully in the past, and who justly occupies a high position in the esteem and confidence of all the people of Georgia.

Are Democrats and Will Stand by the Nominees.

In our issue of the 12th, we stated that it was reported that there were republican candidates running in Lumpkin county subject to the democratic primary, and asked that all candidates who were democrats and willing to stick to the nominees, either elected or defeated at the primary, to send us their names for publication, so the people of this county might not be deceived in casting their ballots in the primary. So far, the following is the list. Others will be added as they are sent in:

Apostle Smith of Utah, has five wives, 42 children and an income of $75,000 a year. That is pretty good record for one man, remarks the Marietta Journal.

Mr. S. A. McDonald of Cross Roads, Ga., who is likely known here to some of our older citizens, has this to say about the old Dahlonega mint in a letter to us this week: "Enclosed find one dollar for The Nugget a year. I was raised in Hall and Lumpkin counties. Saw the mint built. Was one of the 12 who signed the petition to have Julius M. Patton appointed president of the mint instead of Jacob R. Davis. I was acquainted with all the people then in Dahlonega. I left for California soon afterwards and never got back till a month ago."

FOR SALE BY DR. C. H. JONES.

Important to Voters.

Attorney General Hart has been asked the following questions by a South Georgia Democrat:

1. "Can a man who has not lived in his county six months register and vote in the primary, if he will have lived in the county six months by the time of the regular election?"

2. "Can a minor who will be twenty-one by the time of the regular election vote in the primary?" To both questions the attorney general answered, "No." A man must be in position, if challenged at the polls, to swear that he is at that time twenty-one years old, that he has lived in the county twelve months and in the county six months.

At the State republican convention last week the whites had to compromise with the negroes by elected Johnson, one of their color, temporary chairman in order to get Col. Farrow in as permanent chairman. Then four delegates were elected to the national convention—two whites and two negroes, one of the latter being recommended by the republicans of Lumpkin county.

C. H. Jones Successful.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence Dr. C. H. Jones, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only give quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles that Dr. Jones is willing to return the price paid in everywhere where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

So great is the demand for this specific that Dr. Jones has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon Dr. Jones at once, or send 25 cents and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

FOR CLERK.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Clerk of the Superior court of Lumpkin county, subject to the Democratic primary. I earnestly solicit the support of the voters of Lumpkin county at said primary election.

Respectfully,
J. E. WILKINS.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.

I am a candidate for County Surveyor of Lumpkin county, subject to the Democratic primary. If elected, I will perform the duties of said office to the best of my ability. I am a democrat, and have always been one, and will abide, with pleasure, the action of the primary.

Respectfully,
HOWARD N. ASH.

Notice to Candidates.

Candidates in Lumpkin county as well as those aspiring for congress in the 9th district, are requested to send in their assignments made by the democratic executive committee at its last meeting, by the 10th day of April, otherwise their names will be left off the ticket.

JOHN H. MOORE, Chm'n.

A delegate who was returning home from the republican convention in Gainesville the other day, said that he wanted to vote for his friends in the democratic primary if permitted. Why doesn't he quit the republican party then? Hadn't he rather join a party and be able to vote for his neighbors and friends than to remain with the one he belongs, that gives negroes good paying offices in preference to white men?

The type made us say that Ed Mays died in this county last week. It was his wife.

Mrs. Lee Landrum, after spending some time in Alabama, returned last Sunday.

Our old friend, Mr. Bowen of White county, was on a visit to his relatives in Dahlonega last week.

Very often it is impossible to supply back numbers of THE NUGGET is why they are not sent upon request.

The person finding a pair of double glassed specks will please return them to McDuffie R. Moore.

Mrs. Fannie Reese of Atlanta, came up on a visit last week to spend a short while here with relatives and friends.

The lightning last Monday bursted one of the transformers and caused half of the town to be in darkness that night.

Messrs. C. W. Satterfield, B. F. Anderson, Jr., and Postmaster Tate of Dahlonega, went down to Atlanta this week to attend the state republican convention. They are certainly good republicans else they wouldn't have left in such a storm of rain we had last Monday.

The peach trees in full bloom and the buds swelling will cause many poor old cows to kick up their heels and rejoice as soon as they get abed, for some of them are so poor now that they have to get behind a fence or building when the wind is blowing, for protection. This is one reason butter and milk is so scarce here now.

Mr. Enoch Crane of this county, had the misfortune to lose his house and contents by fire last Saturday, meat and everything else, supposed to have caught from a stove fire. It was early after dinner and all were out at work some distance from the house. When they reached home the building was falling in and the labor of many years was soon nothing but a heap of ashes.

Parties from Union county inform us that most of Mr. James Blackwell's family have been down with typhoid fever. Some are well, others are sick and one died. The one that died was a little boy that breathed his last on Saturday morning. It was in bed with his little sister, who was so bad off that she did not realize what had happened, and it may be that she is dead by this time and gone to join her brother in the world beyond. This family used to live in Lumpkin county.

Three candidates, G. H. McGuire, J. L. Davis and James L. Henlan, spent the day up in Chestate district last week at a rail mauling and working at Mrs. Stancels, a widow lady, where about 20 voters had gathered, and the way these candidates worked was a sight. Four ladies built the fence while the men cut and split the rails. Those who are willing to help widows and fatherless daughters on occasions like this are certainly very kind hearted.

Our readers who are interested in the land deal that has been on foot between the United States Leather Co. and Messrs. Anderson & Jones in this county, for many months, will be glad to learn that they will soon receive pay for 2100 acres, the amount of titles to which have been passed upon favorably by the company's attorney, who spent some time in Dahlonega examining the records, assisted by Col. Lilly of this place. A letter from the company to Messrs. Anderson & Jones last Saturday stated that a check to pay for 2100 acres had been forwarded to its attorney in North Carolina, who is expected here at any time now to pay the same over.

Mr. and Mrs. Jaquish of Auraria, were in Dahlonega for a short while last Tuesday. Mr. Jaquish reports things moving along at the Etowah Mine, of which he is general manager, in a satisfactory manner.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Although the weather was very inclement last Monday night, the young ladies' entertainment at the college was well attended. The door receipts amounted to near $88, all of which will be used as another payment on their piano. O. J. Johnson keeps a full line of all kinds of goods, priced low enough to make it of much interest to the purchaser. Besides this he will pay cash for eggs and chickens, allowing you a good price. Be sure and call if you are in search of bargains.

Cadet Smith of Cherokee county, who is attending college here, seems to have a "bird in the hand." He is running for tax receiver of that county without opposition. This speaks well enough of the young gentleman without any further comment.

Messrs. Cochran and Griffith of Fannin county, who have been attending college at Dahlonega for some time, withdrew a few days ago and started for the west to better their condition. They were both fine young men, liked much by both students and citizens, all of whom hope they will meet with prosperity in their undertaking.

Last Saturday night up at the college, while a certain young man was sitting by the side of a young lady, he got one foot fastened in the back of a bench fronting him, getting him in a bad shape, for he didn't want to stay there all night and felt too much embarrassed to try to walk out with his girl with a big bench swinging to one foot. So he gave a jerk and off dropped all the bottom part of the leather on that shoe, and he left the college with a girl to one arm and about a pound of leather in the other hand, partially soles. It was Paul Boardfield but don't say anything about it.

There was a most happy meeting in Dahlonega last Saturday between two old friends who had not seen each other in much over a quarter of a century. It was Mr. E. Carroll, a resident of Dahlonega, and Mr. James M. Duckett, formerly of this county but now of Colorado, being the first visit to his native county in thirty-four years. In the year 1861 these gentlemen, together with many others, formed in front of the court house and started for Savannah where they remained in camps for 6 months causing them to become greatly attached to each other, and after looking around and studying could not even think of a single comrade here now who left with them in '61. All are dead and gone but them. It was a sad recollection and caused tears to come in their eyes. And much greater was the sadness on Mr. Duckett's part for he went away confident that he would look upon the face of his father no more, as the old gentleman has reached the age of 92 and is now lying at the point of death.

Mr. W. C. Duckett of Nelson, was over last week on a visit to his relatives in this county.

Last Sunday was the first day of spring and it was certainly a bright warm lovely day.

The rain last Monday kept most of the candidates at home and the voters got a days rest.

Mr. Tregent, who is operating the Barlow mine, has rented the Mrs. Craig house here and will soon be a citizen of our town. Welcome.

Mr. Joe Moose, who sold out and left here for Alabama recently, soon got enough of that section and returned to this county last week.

Gentlemen, there are two papers published in Dahlonega—THE NUGGET and Signal. All we ask of you is to subscribe for the best paper. Isn't this a fair proposition?

We have no republican postmasters or assistants to hand out sample copies and drum for THE NUGGET like some weeklies that we know of, yet THE NUGGET gets there all the same.

Persons cleaning out their gardens should not throw the stumps, briars and trash out on the streets for them to have to be moved at the expense of the town. There is an ordinance against this and it ought to be enforced. Citizens should have more pride about them than to do this any way.

A gentlemen of Dahlonega, while spending the night with a friend in the country recently, was asked to go out before supper and help him rob a stand of bees. The townsman was somewhat afraid of bees, but he went along with the man till he found a stand that suited the owner, who raised the lid and pulled out a jug of liquor. At the right season we want to get a swam of those bees.

A still being found near the premises of Jim Self of this county, caused him to be arrested and brought in by Deputy Marshal Grizzle last Saturday. Bill Stover swore that Self had nothing to do with it and the defendant was discharged and a case then made against Stover who will have his trial today. But we guess the guilt will eventually fall on some one else, for if stills were twenty-five cents a piece Stover, poor fellow, is not able to buy the worm for one.

Those spring goods at J. F. Moore & Co., just received, are too pretty for us to try to tell you anything about them, and too cheap to talk of. Go and see them.

After being at Bessemer, Ala., for several weeks, Mr. John Jackson has decided to move there, and his family will start to that place today, to the regret of their many friends here.

Mr. Cicero Ravan of Chestate district, was in town last Thursday looking for a doctor. About two weeks ago he fell while carrying a stick of wood, knocking his right shoulder out of place. He thought he adjusted it all right, but being unable to use his arm since, came down to consult Dr. Jones, who soon set it.

Will Ward and Will McDougald were up before Mayor Baker last Wednesday, charged with fighting, about a couple of weeks ago. Ward was given 30 days on the streets. McDougald was first fined but after the Mayor learned that Ward made McDougald agree to plead guilty, while they were in the calaboose, remitted the fine and turned him at liberty.

Last Wednesday Mr. W. G. Campbell of Dahlonega, received the sad intelligence of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. R. Castberry, which occurred near Bessemer, Ala., on the afternoon before, leaving a wife and little child among strangers, comparatively speaking, as they had only left Dahlonega about three months before. The deceased was a son-in-law of Mr. Geo. W. Stumon of White county. He first had measles and then the fever, and after lingering several weeks passed away at the time before mentioned, leaving many relatives and friends, in both Lumpkin and White counties, to mourn his loss.

Rev. J. E. Blackburn has returned from his visit to relatives in Pickens county.

We are requested to state that there will be an all day singing at Oak Grove church if the weather is favorable next Sunday.

Mr. B. R. Meaders, informs us that Mr. Frank Meaders has returned from South Georgia to Gainesville, where he has been selling stock for the Meaders firm, and reports the most successful trip for them in twenty years.

Judge J. C. Brittain of Dahlonega, received a telephone message last Thursday afternoon, stating that his wife was very bad off. Mrs. Brittain was sick when she left Dahlonega but went down to Gainesville to her daughters thinking the change might help her. Later, before going to press a message states that Mrs. Brittain is dying.

We never attended college is one reason why you see but few high falutinary words in THE NUGGET. Yet it contains the news that all can understand. We try to use such language that will break no one's jaw in reading the paper. This is why THE NUGGET is so popular among the people.

A card received from J. W. Lindsey, state pension commissioner, to Judge Huff this week, states that he thinks he will be able to pay Mr. J. E. Howell his pension this year out of the surplus. We are glad to hear this for there is not a more deserving or needy veteran in the county than Mr. Howell.

Our much esteemed friend, Mr. N. C. Tank, spent last Thursday evening in Dahlonega, who every body here likes to see come. He was the last one going to bed and the first one to rise, and talked interestingly all the time. Although the many long years Uncle Bony has experienced are telling on him, he is the same good natured, jolly fellow as ever.

It is more than likely that the Superior court of Lumpkin county will be postponed until the 4th Monday in April on account of the democratic primary coming off during the week of the regular session. Judge Kinsley, who is holding court for Judge Russell this week in Banks, has been written to by Solicitor General Charters requesting him to do so but no reply has been received as we go to press. If it is done due notice will be given to all concerned.

Mining Notes.

Although the weather has been very wet this week it didn't stop the work on the Briar Patch canal but very little.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co. will be held in Dahlonega May 12, 1904.

The rains this week have enabled Manager Crisson to keep a portion of the Crown Mountain mill running both day and night. McDonald Bro. are making it count down at the Lockhart. Last week they cleaned up nearly two hundred pennyweights. This was only a weeks run with the labor of just three hands. They have been in a large body of ore for some time, the width and depth is not known as they have not yet cut through it. As stated last week the mill and pump are very old, compelling them to have to stop mining about every other week and spend the time in repairing.

Townsend and Adams, who are mining on the Singleton property are doing well. They are now on a vein that turns out splendid results on the mill. Four tons last week made them fifty-two pennyweights. Eula Jefferson, and another fellow, working a vein close by, formed a copartnership with the others, and 21 tons from the two veins this week realized them 150 pennyweights of clean gold. This was made by the four men in about 12 days work. Others are engaged mining on the same property with satisfactory results, which is very encouraging to the general manager.

The richness of the Jumbo gold mine continues to astonish all who see it from both far and near. As stated last week some gentlemen came here to pay this mine, of which they had heard so much about, a personal visit, one of whom showed by his actions that he knew what he was doing. This gentleman was Mr. J. B. Suttler of the city of Atlanta, Ga., who carried some of his samples down to Pratt's Laboratory in Atlanta, which he got from the mine March 12, 1904, and the following is a certificate of the result:

N. P. PRATT LABORATORY, COR. AUBURN & COURTLAND AVS., ATLANTA, GA., March 18, 1904.

CERTIFICATE OF ASSAY.

Samples received from J. B. Suttler and Amos Fox, Atlanta, Ga. No. 23218, "shaft No. 1, sulphurets 2 1/2 foot vein" $5.00 per ton.

No. 23219, "Shaft No. 2" $19.40 per ton.

No. 23220 "8 inch vein" $41.60 per ton.

No. 23221 "Big sand vein two samples" $2.00 per ton.

No. 23222 "Mistletoe No. 1 double sample" $58.00 per ton.

No. 23223 "Mistletoe No. 2" $17.20.

No. 23224 "Pine Log" $67.00 per ton.

Respectfully submitted, N. B. PRATT, Lab'y.

The Etowah Gold Mining and Milling Co's plant is rapidly nearing completion, and things down at the mine are moving in a steady business like manner. They are in hopes that everything connected with the mine will be so adjusted that they can start up the plant soon in good shape. In getting such a mammoth amount of work done unlooked for delays occur, and twenty miles to haul in material seems quite a distance when you have to wait for it. Men are digging the canal, some on days pay and some on contract. The delivering of the lumber for the flumes was expected to commence this week by J. C. Stephens and as soon as it is in men will be put to making flumes and connecting with the canal. Quite a good deal of blasting had to be done to lower the levels in the canal according to recent survey.

All mining men in the south will read with interest an article written for the Mining and Scientific Press by Earnest Gaylord on cyminding in the southern states. The Colassus Gold M. & M. Co. has been working nearly eleven years on a large deposit of tailings from the old Howie Mine twenty miles from Charlotte, N. C., and has proved a marked success. The Howie is one of the oldest mines in the Southern states and has produced by mint returns over $700,000. Without commenting further upon this able article we will quote the last paragraph in his article for the benefit of those skeptical ones who cry down the only great industry in the foot hills of the North Georgia mountains and those that are in Lumpkin county especially. "There are numerous good gold properties in the South that are only needing capital and intelligent handling to assure astonishing results; but for some reason here mining seems unpopular, especially to the average southerner. While one may be interested in cotton he will receive the sympathy and support of every one; but should he try to produce that even more necessary—gold—he will be looked at askance by all and with pity by some."

The Colassus Gold Mining & Milling Co., under whose auspices the work is done, is under the management of Gill S. Paigton, who was cyminding in Utah in 1892, and at that time Mr. H. D. Jaquish learned the process of cyminding from him.

BLOOMING GROVE, TEX., Nov. 13, 1902.

I had been a sufferer from these things and a general run-down condition for ten years, and had only received temporary relief from other medicines. But after taking two bottles of your Liver and Blood Syrup I feel as stout and hearty as I ever did in my life. I am satisfied that I am entirely cured. I feel no symptoms whatever of kidney trouble, and my digestion is as good as any living man's. I can now eat whatever I choose.

Commercial Traveler to Fly.

A firm recently advertised for a commercial traveler, and, out of the numerous applicants for the post, selected an individual who had plenty of confidence but very little experience.

He started out on his journeyings, and nothing was heard of him for a week. Then a letter came:

"I have not succeeded in obtaining any orders yet, but have had a long interview with the principal of Messrs. Brown Bros. This I flatter myself, is a feather in my cap, as he is a very difficult man to get at."

Three days passed, no order came, but another letter, in which the ambassador "plumed" himself on the fact that he had talked to the secretary of a large company for two hours. Yet another week rolled by, and the traveler wrote, claiming another feather in his cap on the strength of an interview with the managing director of a syndicate, and asking for more cash.

The firm wrote him as follows: "Dear Sir—We have received your letter, and note your request for money. We are not inclining any, but, noting that you have a good many feathers in your cap, we should advise you to make into a pair of white wings and fly home."

Biggest Incubator in the World.

The largest incubator ever made is fifty-one feet long and a little over four feet wide. It has fifty compartments and in each of these there are two trays, or one hundred trays all told. Each tray holds at least seventy-five eggs, making the total incubating capacity of this single machine 7,500 eggs.

It takes twenty-one days to hatch eggs, whether they are placed under a hen or in a incubator. Estimating that the hatching season opens March 1, this machine would handle 50,000 eggs, and if 50 per cent. of them hatched it would mean 25,000 young stock. However, the percentage of eggs hatched will no doubt run much higher than this, at least up to 75 per cent., which would mean 75,000 young stock. A hen sits on from twelve to fifteen eggs, so that giving each hen the latter number of eggs would mean that to equal the hatching capacity of this one incubator one would have to set no less than 2,500 hens.—American Farmer.

Telling of the Baby.

When a Dutch baby makes its arrival, the fact is announced by a man wearing a black coat and a white tie, who is hired by the little one's parents to go round to all their friends with packets of sweets, which are appropriately decorated with a picture of a baby and an angel. The confection is made of aniseed and sugar. Rough sweets signify the birth of a boy, smooth sweets (that of a girl). The children of the families to whom they are sent eat the sweets spread upon their bread and butter. In the eighteenth century the birth of a child was announced by tying a pin cushion decorated with lace and ribbons to the door knocker of the parents' house.

A Massachusetts man has been sent to jail for three months for letting his horse go three days without food or water. Now let the horse dockers and other "cruelty-to-animals" brutes be given a similar dose and in time the barbarism may be stopped.

The Hearst boom seems to be a thing of the past in Georgia for president. Judge Parker of New York, now seems to be in the lead.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

543 1-2 Congress St.
Pompano, Fla., Oct. 17, 1902.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to other medicines I have used, and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for months from my irregular menstruation which completely prostrated me. I was unable to get up, my back and sides and I would have to lie down. I was so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui gave me strength and I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness.
